Roseburg—Limestone quarries employ 30 men.

Albany—$20,000 loganberry plant assured and machinery ordered.

Two bones are to be thrown to Oregon—one labelled "30 per cent for the counties," and the other "20 per cent for the school fund," bones to be knawed some time in the future when $6,000,000 or more has been accumulated for others. Even the bones are shadowy.—Oregonian on O. and C. Land Grant bill.

Portland—Conference of loganberry growers to standardize products of the industry.

The toll for county and state government is growing each year, and we should pause before property is fully confiscated.—Chairman Pierce of State Taxpayers League.

St. Johns now quaffs Bull Run water.

Crown-Columbia paper mills increase wages $100,000 a year.

Cherry Grove gets big sawmill.

County road from Oregon City to Clackamas bridge being hard surfaced.

Buildings secured for Eugene flax works.

Newberg gets large fruit vinegar factory.

Prosperity, population and payrolls is the slogan at Roseburg.

Progressive Coos county carried a big bond issue for good roads.

Estacada to have modern cannery employing 50 to 100 people.

Ontario—Nitrate beds of Malheur county to be developed on a large scale.

Toledo gets a new business building.

Baker—Chicago-Virtue mine will start mills on June 1st.

Portland special privilege fadists boosting municipal golf links.

Salem—Suit brought to enjoin purchase of $600 municipal paving plant.

Portland—Another meat inspector with auto to be added to city force.

There is more salvation in industry and honest employment for people than in all the political nostrums ever invented.

North Bend—Buehner Lumber Co. to open logging camp at Ten Mile.

Green, Douglas county, to have new school.

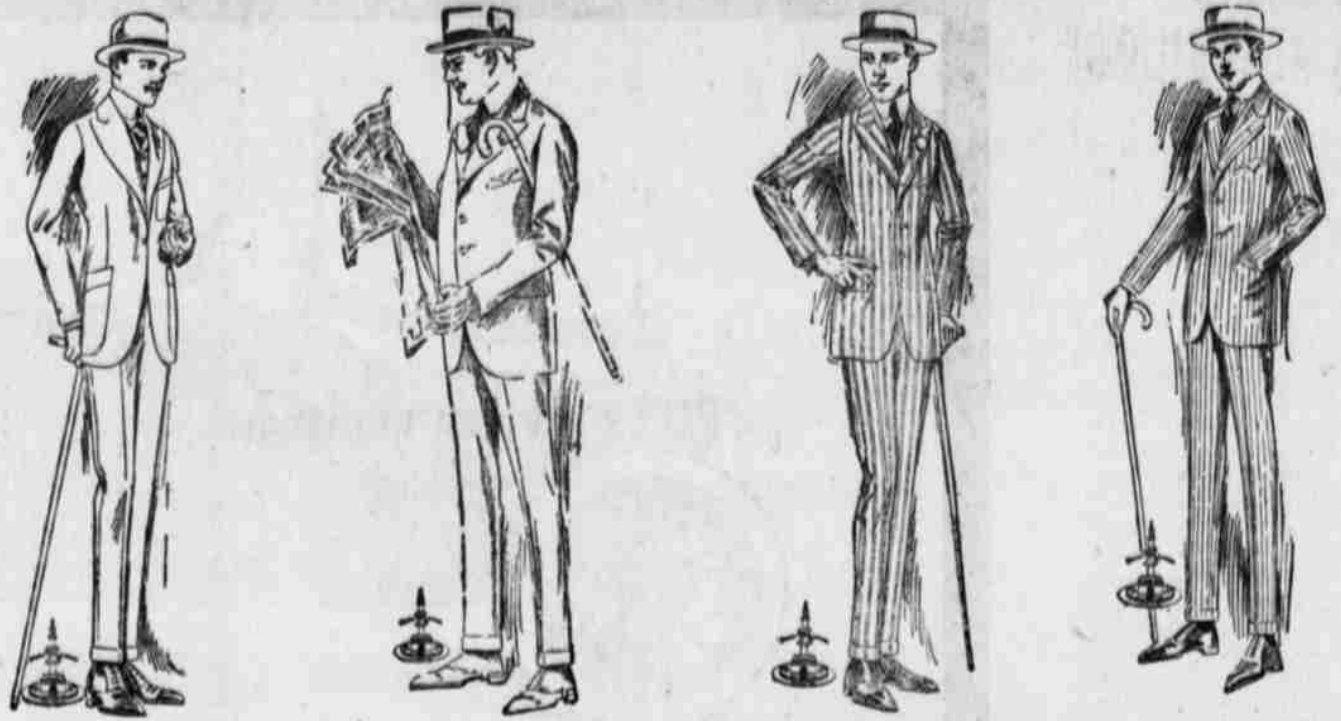

The Southern Pacific railroad paid over $440,000 overtime wages in 1915.

Hermiston to have $5000 library.

The outcome of the State Taxpayers league movement will be a tax limitation law and a debt limitation law.

Myrtle Point—$14,536 sewer contract let to Edward Sandberg, Oregon City.

Rural credits for cheaper farm loans would be a great blessing.
