Walter Glenn shipped two carloads of horses to Caldwell for the sale this week.

E. W. Van Valkenburg is home from a trip to the Harney country where he went to look after business. He says he was followed by old man hard luck all the way and did not do much good.

Ad. Simons was a visitor to Boise Monday to boost for the auto show. He found business much improved at Boise and the dealers all busy, but enthusiastic over the auto show to be held here. He was accompanied by C. C. Dodge.

Pat Coleman was here from Brogan Friday with two cars of hogs he was shipping to Portland. He says there is plenty of fruit on the hillsides around Brogan, but that on the lowlands was injured some.

Henry Griffith is back from a trip to the Jordan Valley and Denio sections back through Burns and the western part of this county. He says he met about all the old timers he ever knew in that country.

There was a car load of vinegar shipped in here last week from northern Idaho with $160 freight charges on it. There are many carloads of produce going to waste here every year that would make excellent vinegar.

The Burns Orchestra will be at Dreamland this evening, Thursday, the 8th. They are talented musicians and will be glad to see you in a seat. They are our neighbors and we should give them a hearty welcome.

Manager Gardner, of the Malheur Home Telephone company, is taking his vacation. He started out and took three days getting to Pocatello. He expects to spend most of his time at American Forks. The family is with him.

There has been another advance made in the Ontario post office. The department has notified Postmaster Gregg that his salary will be advanced another hundred dollars the first of July, owing to the increased receipts of the office. The republicans are in session at Chicago for the purpose of naming the next president of the United States. Hughes seems to have the largest following, but it is thought that Roosevelt has enough strength to again defeat the nominee of the party that has so honored him. It is known that he is again doing everything within his power to get the nomination, but he lacks any great following among the delegates, and it is doubtful if the people would elect him, even if his nomination was forced. Too many still remember his wrecking the party and country four years ago.
