JORDAN VALLEY.

(From the Express)

Haying is now in full swing in this valley, with a shortage of haymakers.

Johnny Oliver was in from his ranch in the Cow lake district Monday after supplies and necessities for the hay harvest. His hay crop is very good and his garlic crop is immense, says Johnny.

FLOWING WELL.

Charley Falen was in from his ranch on Spring mountain Wednesday after supplies. He says that the well bored on his place last spring is flowing faithfully and steadily, supplying water for household use, watering the stock and for irrigating a fine garden and shade trees. The water is excellent for drinking. The well is 160 feet deep and lined with an inch and a quarter pipe.

IMPORTANT RANCH DEAL.

Riley Horne has purchased the Huff ranch at Cow lake. This property, consisting of eight hundred acres, lies at the head of the lake and several hundred acres of fine meadow land are self-irrigated by the overflow waters of the lake each year. Mr. Horne previously owned two hundred acres of land adjoining this ranch, which practically connects with his home ranch, some 20 miles away. He will probably build a new home at the lakes for his own use. The Huff ranch is the place that J. A. Nelson endeavored to secure possession of, but which the court restored to its owner, Mrs. Huff.

Inquiries are continually being received at this office in regard to lands in this valley. Not many landowners of this section of the country appear anxious to sell, the tendency being to acquire more acres. This is a good place to live and the people know it and are content to stay.

There is still good government land for homesteading, some with possibilities for private irrigation systems at moderate cost. All natural flow irrigation waters have been appropriated.

There are thousands of acres of road-grant lands for sale at from $5 to $20 per acre, with water available for a lot of it.

The Carey act project under the Antelope reservoir comprises fifty thousand acres of very choice land, beautifully located. This project is not yet open to entry, but the system is practically completed and the time for opening will not be long delayed.

DEAD ON FLAT.

Mrs. Fay Sutton, Latin and German teacher at Fruitland, Idaho, for two years past, is now in Boise under treatment of a specialist for catarrh. Miss Sutton recently proved up on a homestead joining her father's, A. Sutton, near the South Jacobson place.

Mrs. Fern White is nursing in Payette.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Howland Thursday, July 13, a four and a half pound girl. The tiny miss is said to be doing fine.

Mrs. Agnes Howland, who has been staying with Mrs. T. J. Brosnan for some time is stopping at the home of her son John.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McDonald dined with Mr. and Mrs. A. Sutton Thursday, July 13th, the occasion being Mr. Sutton's fifty-sixth birthday.

Miss Jessie Lias visited with her sister, Mrs. Mabel Rogers, of Payette, returning, Monday, the 10th, bringing Mrs. Roger's little daughter home with her to spend a few days with her grandmother.

Chas. Herr and Chas. Lias worked the 19th and 11th on the main ditch clearing it of weeds and other debris in hopes the company could thereby get more water down to the end of the ditch.

Levi Crull has been under the weather several days recently, but has recovered sufficiently to be at work again.

Jerry Rice returned home from haying at C. O. Douglas' the 11th in order to harvest his own rye crop.

L. W. Smith was driving his fine three year old Belgian stallion for the first time the 11th. He acted like he had been born in the harness.

Mrs. John Raney has been sick with typhoid fever but is able to be around again. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Robert Raney went to see her Saturday but found she had recovered and gone to town.

Mrs. A. T. McDonald made a trip to Payette Thursday for repairs for Mr. A. Sutton's binder, while A. T. helped him make new parts and give it a general over-hauling. But when put to the trial test Friday it refused to work. Further new parts will be necessary.

E. E. Compton left Monday for the harvest fields of Eastern Washington.

A petition has been liberally signed for a new school district in the vicinity of the North and South Jacobson gulches.

Guy Morgan was out to his dry farm Sunday and took back a gas engine with which to grind hog feed.

Jeff Crull has disposed of his dry farm. This time they say it is a sure go. It has been reported a time or two before, but for one reason or another the deals fell through. They traded for Payette property.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Witbeck took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McDonald Sunday, the 16th. Oliver Mayfield cut grain for Chas. and Jewey Rice the past week.

VALLEY VIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harlow and Miss Edna Von Readen took supper with Mrs. W. G. Armstrong last Friday evening.

Mrs. C. E. Amidon accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walters to Weiser Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. George Wright.

Miss Lizzie Burreas is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Rees, the last two weeks.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. Ballard entertained their daughter and husband of Kingman Colony, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Harlow.

Miss Clara Flemming and Chas. Gosset were calling on Miss Ida B. Frazer Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. G. W. Kaylor visited Mrs. C. E. Rees last Thursday afternoon.

Fred Mortenson is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

C. Taylor, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dean, daughter, Dorothy and Mr. Dean's mother, made a trip to Boise last Sunday.

Christian Frazier was visiting Miss Una Armstrong Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Butler, Sr., son Cody and Miss Clara Flemming, started Monday on a trip overland to Yellowstone park.

Mrs. Gus Richs many friends will be glad to know she has recovered from her recent illness.

Preaching Sunday, July 23 at three o'clock by Rev. C. C. Pratt.

GOVERNMENT ENGINEERS HERE.

A party of government engineers arrived here Friday and have commenced surveying the government land laying under the Succor creek project in Oregon near Homedale. There are seven men in the crew and it will take them from four to five months to complete the work.—Homedale Press.

Robert Collier of Ontario, an experienced market man in all branches has accepted a position at the Huntington Meat Co.—Huntington News.

NYSSA.

Hay in this vicinity is being rapidly contracted for. All the alfalfa on the Blodgett and Kingman ranches this year will go to Mr. Arrian, the sheep man. The terms are seven dollars a ton, with a thirty-day measurement.

Johnny Lackey, who was severely injured in a runaway accident last week, is recovering rapidly. He is already able to do light chores down on the farm.

The epidemic of "cussedness" continues to follow Nyssa equines. A team plowing on the Lackey tract adjoining town ran away Tuesday, smashing the plow and damaging the harness.

A marriage license was issued at Caldwell Wednesday to B. F. Smith and Mrs. F. A. Armstrong, both of Nyssa. They were married at Caldwell on Wednesday and will reside on the George Green place near town, which Mr. Smith recently purchased.

The large plate glass window in the Concelmo Bros.' bowling alley was demolished Wednesday when a horse left standing on Main street backed across the sidewalk. The rear of the buggy crashed through the window, making a noise like a ten strike. The damage was about $50, partly covered by insurance.

An adjuster of the Northern Assurance company, of which J. Boydell is the local agent, was in town Thursday to adjust the loss sustained by Ernest Zahler when his house and its contents were damaged by fire Wednesday evening. A settlement satisfactory to all concerned was quickly made, Mr. Zahler receiving $400.

Jacob Huffman is getting ready to reclaim another large patch of the desert by putting a waterwheel in the Owyhee to irrigate 100 acres of his land near Mitchell Butte. Bert Hoxie, who is an authority on waterwheel irrigation, was out there this week to oversee the preliminaries and reports that the plant will be installed immediately. With a good supply of water Mr. Huffman will soon have one of the finest farms in the whole Snake valley. And there are still hundreds of acres along the Snake and Owyhee rivers that can be irrigated at small cost.

JUNTURA.

(From the Times)

William Jones, with Ben and Forrest, went to Vale Tuesday, in connection with the proving up of Ben's homestead, and also to see about the purchase of some land for use in their business. Owing to the very crowded condition of the range with sheep, they feel compelled to take steps to protect themselves.

The petition for the creation of a new school-district in the country surrounding Jeff Proman's was favorably considered last week by the district boundary board at their regular meeting; it will be a benefit to those families located within its boundaries as well as a factor in building up such communities.

Mr. J. A. Draper was fortunate enough this week to land the contract for the building of a large up to date bungalow at Drewsey, for Jarvis D. Smith, the well known dispenser of soft drinks in that burg. The building is to be something like 38 feet by 42 feet and will be a very handsome addition to the present existing residences in Drewsey.

ANOTHER BIG DEAL IN SHEEP RECORDED

Another sheep deal brought to our notice this week is that of P. J. Conroy's disposal of his band of ewes to Mac Donald and Mac Kenzie of Castle Rock ranch for the figure of $7.25 per head.—Juntura Times.

Great men are often great in the eyes of everyone but those who know them best.

BREAKERS AHEAD FOR THE EDITORS

With the price of paper going skyward the publisher of the country paper has a hard nut to crack. If sugar advances a cent a pound the merchant just adds it to the cost for the consumer but when the publisher's paper bill jumps from $300 to $500 what is there to be done? He can not raise his subscription 15 and 20 cents to cover this cost and he can not get it out of the consumer of news. The only way that will partly compensate it is to have all of the subscribers keep their subscription accounts up to date and this will at least enable the publisher to stand the loss with much better grace. Most every kind of business will permit the shoving along of war prices to the other fellow but the publisher is in the last ditch and the loss is his and his alone.

A German submarine of powerful proportions crossed the Atlantic undetected and entered an American port. And yet we talk of our isolation rendering us immune from attack from abroad. We have much to learn and but few seem to care to do the learning.
