HOW FARMERS ARE AIDED BY RURAL CREDITS BILL.
Procedure Necessary to Secure a Loan From the Government.

Here is what a farmer who needs money can do under the rural credits bill, which was signed recently by the president:

First, he must join what is to be known as a National Farm Loan association, paying in $5 for one of its shares for each $100 he wishes to borrow. He has one vote a share, but not to exceed ten votes in all.

Next, he applies to the association for the loan, giving his personal note therefor, secured by a first mortgage on his farm. If the association approves the loan it turns the note mortgage to a land bank. The land bank sends the amount of the loan to the association, which hands the money to the farmer. No commission, brokerage or rakeoff is charged the borrower. No single loan is to be for less than $100 or more than $10,000, nor for less than five years or more than forty years. The loan must not exceed 60 per cent, and preferably should not go beyond 50 per cent of the market value of the land covered by the mortgage.

The borrower pays semiannually the interest on his note, plus an instalment of the principal. He must not be charged over 6 per cent interest.

Each National Farm Loan association must have at least ten members, and it cannot begin business with less than $20,000 in loans applied for.

It is illegal, under severe penalties, for any officer, committeeman or member to accept any commission, fee or perquisite of any kind for granting any loan. The only paid officer is a secretary-treasurer.

Money can be borrowed by this system in order to pay for agricultural land, equipment, fertilizers, live stock, buildings and improvement or to discharge a prior mortgage.

The land bank may charge the borrowing farmer only 1 per cent more than the rate it gets on its bonds. This margin of one point is to cover expenses and profits.

Grass Grows in Tree.
 Wetmore, Kan.—In the E. W. Thornburrow yard in Wetmore is a large bunch of blue grass growing in the fork of an elm tree ten feet from the ground. Every fall the residents of Wetmore, who are watching this curiosity, expect the grass to be winter killed, but every spring it shows up green and strong and matures seed. The grass has been growing in the tree for three years.

Moives Draw More Than Church.
 Belleville, Kan.—"Where the People Go" is the title of an interesting compilation prepared during the social survey taken in Belleville. It shows that during the year 195,000 attend the moving picture show, 93,000 religious services, 8,600 church socials and picnics, 12,400 the county fair and farmers' institute, 5,000 the Chautauqua and 2,870 go to ball games.

Wouldn't Say "Votes For Women."
 Chicago.—Because it could not be taught to say "Votes for women," a parrot which had been recently taken to the headquarters of the woman suffragists is now back in the bird store.
