GOES TO ATTEND BIG SALE OF PRIZE SHEEP

A. E. Brown of Venator came to Ontario Monday to transact business and prepare for the removal of his family to town for the winter. He then left on Monday evening for Salt Lake to attend the annual meeting of the National Wool Growers association and to be present at the biggest sale of prize sheep ever held in this country.

"As I understand it this big sale," said Mr. Brown, "will be marked by the presence of sheep from every wool growing state in the union and a large number from Australia. It is said too that there will be 35 prize head from England offered on the block."

"The sheep men are lucky this year. Of course they are doing well now, but they can thank the war for their prosperity. It is a nightmare to think of what happened to the price of wool after the Underwood tariff went into effect, and before the embargoes were placed on Australian and New Zealand wool."

"If the war stops the sheepmen might as well go out of business. There would not be a chance for them to make a living. Without a protective tariff there is no such thing as American sheepmen competing with the Australians and New Zealanders."

Mr. Brown reports that the region around Venator is still enjoying good range and that most of the sheep of that section have been contracted for fall delivery.

HEAVY DEMAND FOUND FOR LYCEUM COURSE

Promoters for Fall and Winter Entertainments Meet With big Success.

Superintendent E. G. Bailey of the public schools under whose auspices the lyceum course for this season is to be given, with Mr. Low representative of the Redpath Bureau has practically completed the preliminary canvass for tickets for the course. The result of their efforts has been highly gratifying. Sufficient support has been secured to insure the success of the course.

Excellent Numbers Booked.
Ontario has been particularly fortunate in securing excellent bookings for the coming season. Some of the best acts coming west over the circuit this year will be seen.

The character of the entertainments may be judged by the opening number, Israel Zangwill's, "The Melting Pot." This play, perhaps the greatest drama of America's problem of assimilating immigrants will be presented by a New York cast, including a number of the original company.

The name of Amherst Ott, is sufficient to proclaim the character of the lecture number. Mr. Ott's famous lecture, "Sour Grapes" has stirred Americans in every state of the union. As a platform orator he is unsurpassed while thru his address there runs a vein of rich humor that is all compelling.

The musical numbers will be furnished by the Fairchild ladies, and the Sarinoffs. The fifth number will be announced later.

ARCADIA GROVE IS SCENE OF BIG TIME

huskies of the Cairo region demonstrated their superior strength by winning the tug of war from a similar number of Ontario business and professional men. The Ontario men tried hard and held the ranchers even for the first three minutes, but by that time the ranchers had entrenched themselves and made short work of the final test.

Besides the picnics from along the Boulevard there were several auto parties from Ontario out to enjoy the festivities.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Beginning Sunday, September 3 the service of low mass at 8:30 will be discontinued and high mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock each Sunday.

Catechism will be held each Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

H. H. Tunny of the Oregon Packing Co. was the third man in the ring at Boise tonight during the Bonde-Sims argument. Besides Mr. Tunny several Ontario fight fans, including P. J. Gallagher, A. H. Riddle and others witnessed the session.

THE WEEK IN FILMLAND

Topping the excellent bills which were presented during the week at Dreamland, Manager S. D. Dorman announces a series that will bring a number of America's greatest favorites before Ontario movie fans during the next few days.

Early in the week Charley Chaplin and Billie Burke were the scintillating stars that made the hits, but view what is in store.

"Bedelia I Want to Steal You."
On Saturday evening Blanche Ring, the girl who sang "Bedelia" and "Dublin Bay," onto the lips of everyone years ago will be seen in her most pronounced stage success, "The Yankee Girl." The film show is as much of a hit as was the funny musical comedy. There is a laugh in the film for you.

Theda Bara in "Destruction"
On Monday an offering of an entirely different character awaits the Dreamland patrons in William Fox's production of "Destruction" in which he has used his most powerful film tragedienne, Theda Bara, the vampire woman. The awful length to which a woman will go is vividly portrayed by Miss Bara in this story. It is a series of climaxes that thrills.

Miss Farrar in "Carmen."
Wednesday offerings again furnish a delightful change and permit the opportunity of seeing for the first time, Miss Geraldine Farrar, one of America's most gifted opera stars in her first serene production, a picturization of "Carmen" the opera with which she electrified New York last season. Tho America and the world knows Miss Farrar best as a golden throated soprano it now beholds in her one of the greatest actresses of the present day.

HORSES FOR FAIR SHOW THEIR CLASS

tory and shows just what fair goers are to see in the way of races:

Rexburg, Idaho, Aug. 27, 1916.

Mr. C. M. Stearns,

Ontario, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Your letters of the 12th, 17th and 22nd received and just opened. Have too busy to open mail for more than a week. With reference to tents for horses, Montpellier was unable to secure and stabled some in barns outside. I think about one hundred horses will be as many as you will need to provide for. Can give you more definite figures from La Grande Oregon.

You or I cannot rearrange the races to suit better, for the reason that No. 5 for Wednesday and No. 13 for Friday are two of the best and hardest fought races ever seen in any circuit and there are no better on the whole program. Many people here are going to Blackfoot on the days these two classes come. Both of these classes, 2:30 and 2:25 paces were raced in 2:13 1/4 within a half second of the fastest heat in the 2:10 class, and No. 1-2:14 pace for your first day was the fastest of the lot, made in 2:11 1/4. They will all go faster in Oregon if tracks and weather are good. Impossible to have better racing than we have had and your program as scheduled cannot be improved on, owing to the very fast and high class horses and the ability of the noted drivers in the 2:30 and 2:25 paces. Either one is worth going hundreds of miles to see. Nothing better on the program. Both the association and the crowds are much pleased and much pleased and your people will see faster racing as the horses move to the lower altitude.

Yours,

JOSEPH WADDELL,

Secy. Intermountain Racing Circuit.

Death Calls Citizen.

Sadness and sorrow visited the home of Bert Myres on the Boulevard last Saturday when his loving wife passed away. She had only been sick a few days when typhoid fever set in and done quick work. Mrs. Stella Myres was born at Cold Springs, Oregon, June 9th, 1888. She was married to Bert Myres, April 3, 1906. She leaves a husband, four children and a host of friends who mourn her departure. All who knew her, attribute to her life that of an affectionate wife and loving mother. She was 28 years, two months and 17 days old.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church Sunday at three o'clock by the pastor, Rev. D. E. Baker. A concourse of friends and neighbors attended this service. Many tokens of love were manifested in floral presentations and kind expressions. The body was laid to rest in the Ontario cemetery. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to Mr. Myres and the children in their bereavement.

LOST THEIR BIG CHESTNUTS.

Lord, how angry our democratic friends are that the progressives have practically declined to this year pull their chestnuts out of the fire for them. Such beautiful chestnuts, too, and so nice and hot, and to think that the progressives refuse to put an asbestos gloves and haul them out just when the democratic mouth is watering for them. It is too bad.

Four years ago they stuffed themselves to satiety with those chestnuts. We have been hearing from them ever since.

This year it looks different and the new crop was so full of promise six weeks ago. It supplied their biggest promise for the campaign. No wonder they are angry. All men become peevish when their digestion is out of fix and this year the democratic stomach carved that special species of chestnut beyond all else. Who says they have not a right to be mad?—Goodwin's Weekly.
