OPEN LYCEUM COURSE WITH GREAT DRAMA

"The Melting Pot" Walker Whiteside's Greatest Vehicle to Be Seen Here October 10.

Preparations have been completed for the opening number of the Ontario Lyceum course for the 1916-17 season. Superintendent E. G. Bailey who is in charge of the course has been busy engaged in picking the tickets for the course and arousing interest. The result manifests itself in a satisfactory advance sale. This is due to the excellence of the numbers to be offered.

To open the course the directors have secured what in all probability is the best number, "The Melting Pot." This will be shown on October 19 at the Dreamland theatre where all the numbers will no doubt be given.

The other attractions will be given as follows: Mount Vernon Players, November 25; Fairchilds, March 10; Savrinoffs' April 12 and Ed. Amherst Oct. April 26.

"The Melting Pot" which opens the course was written by Irael Zangwill and is a drama of alien American life.

It is the expression of the combined yearnings of millions of alien hearts for liberty of life and thought.

The play was first produced in New York. The company of some of the leading players in America was headed by Mr. Walker Whiteside. The play made Walker Whiteside famous, and afforded all of the players great opportunities.

It is a play with great dramatic climaxes, of intense human emotions, of humor and tragedy. It is in four acts, and the setting is in New York City. Not when it was produced, nor at any time since, has there been a time when this drama was so timely as now. It will be presented as it was in New York City.

LOCAL WINNER HAVING BIG TIME ON TRIP WON

Miss Helen Peck who won the honor of a trip to the State Fair by taking first place in the project exhibits of girls at the county fair is having a most enjoyable visit on the west side according to advices received by her family.

Miss Peck, who is one of the accomplished musicians of the county was invited to the home of Senator Calkins at Eugene, following the state fair and urged to bring her violin with her. This she did and many little parties are being given in her honor and she is having the opportunity of hearing musical programs of high order and is thoroughly enjoying them, she writes.

BUY AND GIRLS WIN STATE FAIR HONORS

Cecil Thompson of Ontario; Marion Lowe of Owyhee and Helen Peck of Kingman Colony.

First place in the contest for boys, first and second in the contest for girls at the State Fair at Salem last week were won by representative from Malheur county. In the county contest the general county exhibit was awarded second place, only seven points behind the winner. Had there been a fruit crop this year there is no doubt that the margin would have either been wiped out entirely or at least greatly reduced.

The first place in the girl's contest, Miss Marion Lowe of Owyhee who entered sewing and canning exhibits took first place for the state, while second place went to Helen Peck of Kingman Colony whose excellent exhibit of sewing won her first place in the county contest here two weeks ago.

Cecil Thompson of Ontario who has won so many first places that he has to stop to count them, was the blue ribbon winner in the boys contest with his agricultural exhibit. The winning of first place by Miss Lowe, second by Miss Peck and first by Cecil Thompson gives Malheur the championship of the state in the educational exhibits and is the subject of no slight gratification on the part of Miss Pay Clark and V. V. Hickox who selected the exhibits to go to the state fair.

COUNCIL TO DEMAND

torney and sheriff and they should enforce the same respect for the law in all of the cities of the county then there can be no objection."

In this shape, then, the matter was left.

Canfield Succeeds Spencer.

Councilman S. J. Spencer who moved from Ontario some time since tendered his resignation which was accepted in the open meeting and when the routine matters were disposed of the council went into executive session and named Ward Canfield to succeed him. Mr. Canfield has had previous experience on the council and is thus equipped to serve. Whether or not he will accept the position for the next few months is not known.

The usual routine bills were allowed and an ordinance passed for the grading of Washington avenue Wasco street to Maple street. The members present at the meeting were Mayor W. F. Homan, Councilman A. E. Fraser, L. O. McCoy, F. E. Everhart and H. L. Peterson, and C. M. Stearns, Recorder.

Among the mighty Nimrods who left Ontario Saturday night to sleep in the rain and get cold and wet while hunting ducks were Paul Campbell and Howard Mallett. They went down on the Owyhee and were rewarded with the limit the law allows.

REV. KOENIG ACCEPTS BOISE CHURCH CALL

Leaves Ontario After a Ministry of Three Years—Growth of Church Has Been Marked.

Rev. Phillip Koenig, who for the past three years has been pastor of the Ontario Congregational church for the past three years, announced at the service last Sunday morning that his resignation was in the hands of the board of trustees, and that he had accepted a call from the Wright Congregational church of Boise, Idaho.

The message of the pastor was received with profound regret on the part of the membership whose number has been greatly enlarged during his residence here. Not only has the membership been increased but the financial standing of the society has been greatly bettered. All the indebtedness on the church and parsonage has been lifted during Rev. Koenig's pastorate and the activities have been extended. The members expressed their approval of Rev. Koenig's work and wish for him success in his new field.

The resignation took effect October 1 but Rev. Koenig will remain in Ontario for two weeks and will continue to fill the pulpit for the next two Sundays.

Of Mr. Wilson it may be said he meant well, but he now finds himself buried under the evidence of inefficiency that Mr. Hughes has brought forth.

There are those who assert that Woodrow Wilson is a clever politician. But how do they account for his remark to a committee of women, calling upon him, to the effect that if they made suffrage "the paramount issue of this campaign," he would "lose all respect for them?" The women of the enfranchised States assert that this threat will cost Wilson the presidency.

Secretary Daniels, however, has the distinction of being one of the greatest arguments the Republicans have ever had.

The salary part of the rural credit system has already begun.

Mr. Bryan thinks Mr. Hughes unfitted for the bench because of the prejudiced frame of mind evinced by his speeches. Wake up, Bill, he ain't running for no judgeship.

Mr. Wilson underestimated the suffragists, but it appears they have him sized up properly.

Ill fares the land where public office is bought and the people are sold.

The high fragmentation of those Hughes bombs is causing consternation in the Wilson trenches.

Bainbridge Colby is almost as violent in his criticism of Mr. Hughes as he was in condemnation of Mr. Wilson's position on Panama tolls two years ago.

Of course President Wilson has a perfect right to change his mind as often as he pleases, but that is quite different from repudiating distinct promises made to get votes. If the pledges on which he rode into the White House have proved worthless because he changed his mind, what faith is to be put in the pledges he is now making in his appeal for re-election?

VILLA AIDED BY WILSON'S FAVOR AND BACKING. In March last Villa made a raid into American territory. He was a bandit leader whose career of successful infamy had been greatly aided by Mr. Wilson's favor and backing. He was at the head of Mexican soldiers, whose arms and munitions had been supplied to them in consequence of Mr. Wilson's reversing Mr. Taft's policy and lifting the embargo against arms and munitions into Mexico. They attacked Columbus, New Mexico, and killed a number of civilians and a number of United States troops. On the next day the president issued an announcement that adequate forces would be sent in pursuit of Villa "with the single object of capturing him." On April 8th the announcement was made from the White House that the troops would remain in Mexico until Villa was captured. It was furthermore announced in the press dispatches from Washington that he was to be taken "dead or alive." Fine words! Only—they meant nothing. He is not dead. He has not been taken alive. From Speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.
