DO YOU KNOW THAT
It is dangerous to put anything into the mouth except food and drink. Sanitary instruction is even more important than sanitary legislation? The U. S. public health service issues free bulletins on tuberculosis? The continuous liberal use of alcoholic beverages lowers efficiency and menaces longevity? Moderate exercise in the open air prolongs life? "Mouth-breathing" makes children stupid? Fish cannot live in foul water nor man in foul air? Smallpox is wholly preventable?

GLYCERINE AND BARK PREVENT APPENDICITIS
The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, astonishes Ontario people. Because Adler-I-ka acts on both lower and upper bowel, one spoonful relieves almost any case constipation, sour stomach or gas. It removes such surprising matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The instant, easy action of Adler-I-ka is astonishing. BAPTIST.
Last Sunday was an unusually good day with us. Large crowds attended both services. The services each Sunday and also at the midweek prayer meeting will be conducted along the evangelistic line leading up to the revival meeting which begins the 5th of November.
Topics for next Sunday: 11 a. m. "In the Upper Room." 7:30 p. m., "The Mission of the Church." Let every Christian arrange to hear these addresses.
A hearty invitation is extended to the public to attend all our services. D. E. BAKER, Pastor.

Cooper Bros. Shows are coming. There is always something about a tented exhibition in the way of amusement that is attractive and this show is well spoken of as being far above the average in pleasing its patrons. No other show has such perfectly trained wild animals and they are well worth seeing. Two performances daily at Ontario, Friday, Oct. 6.
The ladies of the Episcopal guild will serve waffles and coffee in the Commercial club rooms on election day from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. 39-40

WILSON KISSED THE HAND RED WITH AMERICAN BLOOD.
President Wilson explicitly shows that the Carranzistas, not once, but repeatedly, made attacks on American towns and killed American citizens and mutilated them in September, 1915. Yet on Oct. 19, 1915, less than a month later, this same President Wilson, through his same secretary of state, formally announced to Carranza's agent that it was his "pleasure" to take the opportunity of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive. President Wilson thus recognized the government which, his own secretary of state declares, had been less than a month previously engaged in reported assaults upon American soil, the government at whose head was General Carranza, who less than two months previously, on Aug. 2, 1915, had contemptuously refused to pay any heed to any representations of President Wilson on behalf of mediation, saying that "under no consideration would I permit interference in the internal affairs of Mexico." President Wilson did not merely kiss the hand that slapped him in the face. He kissed that hand when it was red with the blood of American men, women and children who had been murdered and mutilated with as President Wilson, through his secretary of state, says, "ruthless brutality." From the speech of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Me., in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

NOTICE OF CONTEST.
No. 324.
Department of the Interior United States land office, Vale, Oregon, September 13th, 1916.
To James J. Woody of unknown address, contestee:
You are hereby notified that Walter G. Batzel who gives Midvale, Idaho, as his post office address, did on September 13th, 1916, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry serial No. 01351 made June 6, 1910, for S 1/2 SE 1/4 Sec. 30, N 1/2 NE 1/4 Sec. 31 T. 16 S. R. 46 E. W. M. and additional homestead entry No. 03212 made March 30, 1914 for NW 1/4 section 31, township 16 south, range 46 east Willamette meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that "said James J. Woody has made no improvements on said land for more than four years past and has not lived on said land for more than a year and a half past and has totally abandoned said land." You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be canceled without further right to be heard, either before this office or an appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the fourth publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail. You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you. THOS. JONES, Register. Date of first publication, Sept. 14, 1916. Date of second publication, Sept. 28, 1916. Date of third publication, Oct. 5, 1916. Date of fourth publication, Oct. 12, 1916.

The Houston Post reasons that it was easier for its own beloved Democracy to endorse the president's Mexican policy than to define it.
While he was about it Senator James Hamilton Lewis also might have explained that the Rome that was "too proud to fight" died a rather disastrous death.
"In all fairness," asks the Boston Transcript, "shouldn't the expense of financing Carranza be borne by the Democratic campaign committee?"
Democrats really haven't any objection to big appropriations for army and navy and internal improvements. They expect the Republicans to rustle the revenue to foot the bills for the next four years.
Hughes says he would like six months to investigate the administration, but the administration figures he's doing very well as it is.
Yes, and the same policies that have filled Judge Hughes and others with "a deep sense of shame" have sent many other Americans to their graves.
The president has changed his mind about sending more troops to the border, thus running true to form.
When Tom Taggart talks economy to them it is time the Democrats stopped their extravagance.
The Hughes smile is beginning to attract favorable attention.
President Entertains Five Progressives. — Headline. Others he simply amuses.
Democratic papers chide Hughes because he says he is "100 per cent a candidate." The Wilson papers naturally prefer a fifty-fifty candidate.
The president says he has no interest in any political party "except as an instrument of achievement." If that's it then how did he happen to select such a poor instrument as the Democratic party?
Carranza isn't a candidate for president of the United States, but he did more for American preparedness in three weeks than Woodrow Wilson did in three years.
Another thing you never hear of since the Democrats reduced the cost of living is the "baker's dozen."
Mr. Hughes is criticised for his frequent use of the word "now." Evidently his immediateness is worrying the watchful waiters, who put things off until tomorrow.
Families living in the rural districts where mail service has been curtailed will be interested in knowing that Postmaster General Burleson has sent Secretary McAdoo a check for $5,200,000, representing surplus postal revenues.
Mr. Gardner should not quote what Mr. Wilson said while president of Princeton. His utterances are outlawed by himself in seven days.
That man Hughes is causing the Democratic newspapers an endless amount of worry. Apparently they will never be satisfied until he turns the management of his campaign over to them.
Mr. Hughes' speeches are giving poor satisfaction to the Democratic press, which proves they are very good speeches indeed.
Secretary Baker is developing an agility in changing his mind that must endear him to his discoverer.
Mr. Wilson's administration must confess itself incompetent in one respect or the other. It either has appropriated for an unneeded navy or it has neglected a needed navy. It can select its fault to suit itself. In one respect or the other it must be wrong.
"I believe in efficiency in politics just as much as in anything else," says Mr. Hughes. Efficiency is an excellent watchword, and its use in the campaign is merely a forerunner of its use in the White House when he gets there.
First they said that Hughes was an iceberg; now they are saying that he is a mud slinger. He cannot possibly be both and, as a matter of fact, is neither. The Democrats must feel in a mighty bad way when they cry out "mud and treason."
It strikes one that instead of wildly hustling for the state of Maine Vance McCormick might do better work by taking his wrecking crew to the west to repair the Democratic bridges that are being dynamited by Justice Hughes.
The impression is growing at the White House that Mr. Hughes is deliberately unfriendly. Look out for notes.
If those Democratic notifiers put off their notifying much longer they may find Mr. Wilson in no mood to accept.
