REVIVAL MEETINGS

START AT M. E. CHURCH

A series of revival meetings will commence tonight at 7:30 in the Methodist church and will be conducted by the Mills Evangelistic party.

J. R. L. Haslam, the business manager and boy's worker arrived in Ontario Tuesday and got everything in readiness for the big campaign.

Edgar L. Mills the well know evangelist and powerful speaker will arrive Friday evening in time for the evening service. His preaching deals with the vital themes of Christianity and people come miles to hear him. Standing room will be at a premium as Evangelist Mills always draws large crowds.

The large chorus and booster choir will lead the song service and rousing new songs will be used.

Everyone is invited to be present each evening.

FRUITLAND

(From the Banner)

The Farmers Mutual Telephone company announces that the present quarterly assessment, due October 10th, will be omitted.

This means that the company has ample funds to defray upkeep and running expenses without this assessment.

One of the directors in speaking of the matter said that the company was in excellent condition financially and the stockholders, by paying up their assessments promptly had made the omission of this assessment possible. He emphasized the fact that if all would adhere to the rule of prompt payment, right along phone service would cost even less than at present.

One of the pleasant social events of the year was the reception tendered Rev. Ford Burtch and wife last Friday night at the Baptist church. About 150 guests were present to meet the new pastor. The ladies of the church made all who came welcome and a dainty luncheon was served in the basement.

Ross Kennedy, Roxie Goss and Jesse Riffe went to La Grande last Thursday, returning Monday.

Mrs. C. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calkins, of Payette, were guests at the L. G. Hooley home last Sunday.

Mrs. Otto Swanson returned from Moore, Idaho. She was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank McGee and children.
