TOM W. HALLIDAY ANSWERS SUMMONS

After Short Illness Prominent and Respected Pioneer Goes to Join the Great Majority

Tom W. Halliday one of the best known and respected of Malheur county's pioneer citizens died Sunday morning at his home in Vale. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. Mr. Halliday leaves to mourn his departure his wife and two children. Wilbur Halliday of Baker and Mrs. Horace Burbridge of Nyssa.

The death of Mr. Halliday came as a distant shock to his many friends for he had not been well for some time his condition was not deemed serious. The funeral took place Tuesday under the auspices of the Vale Lodge No. 142 A. F. and A. M. Services were held at the Halliday home in Vale where B. L. Milligan of Walla Walla delivered a eulogy on the life and work of Mr. Halliday. The body was brought to Ontario for interment. The esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow citizens was eloquently testified to by the many who came to this city to pay their respects. Members of Ontario lodge of Masons met the train and formed an escort for the funeral cortege to the grave. The pall bearers were C. W. Mallett, Judge Casius Brown, V. B. Staples, J. P. Dunaway, C. M. Crandall of Vale and Mr. Bodfish of Nyssa.

During his residence in Malheur county Mr. Halliday was one of the men who bulled for the future and gave of his time and talent to the advancement of every forward step. He was in the highest sense a progressive and upright citizen. He served the public as sheriff for one term and for two terms was county treasurer. He also developed one of the finest farms in the valley ten miles west of Ontario where he lived until four years ago when he moved to Vale.

Tom W. Halliday was born in Ohio 65 years ago and when but a boy moved to Arizona. Later he went to St. Clair, Nevada, where in 1851 he married Emma M. Ferguson, who survives him. Soon after their marriage in 1852 they came to Malheur county and took the homestead which together they developed. Mr. Halliday was also prominent in fraternal circles he was made a Mason in Accacia lodge of Ontario and later transferred his membership to the Vale lodge. He was also a member of the Odd Fellows lodge of Ontario, the members and officers of which were present at the funeral services here on Tuesday.

DANGER OF SPREAD OF TYPHOID PASSED

tarly and Dr. Whitney holds him blameless for the condition which exist.

"As a matter of fact," said the Health Officer, "it was the very sanitary precautions which Mr. Griffin employed that may have caused the trouble. I believe the trouble has come thru the washing of the cows udders with the water from the infected well. This well is only 30 feet from the main sewer and being a shallow well it may have received the infection from the sewer. This is possible and is a condition over which Mr. Griffin had no control. He did not know the water was contaminated. In voluntarily closing his dairy he did all that a man could do to protect the city.

"It is possible that the contamination was spread because of the sanitary manner in which Mr. Griffin has had the udders of his cows washed before milking, a few drops could thus easily get into the milk, despite the fact that all the bottles and milk containers were constantly sterilized he milk would still carry the germs secured at the time of milking.

"As yet we have had no reports from the city water and other samples sent for analysis and the supposition must be accepted that they are alright or we would have heard from them. If those taking care of patients are careful, I believe there will be no further spread unless it be among people already affected but every precaution should still be practiced."

During the week the doctors have been busy vaccinating citizens and to avoid trouble children have been carrying boiled water to school and the general clean up of the city continues.

C. A. McCreary of La Grande motored from his home to Crane and on his return Thursday was accompanied to his home in La Grande by Mrs. Justine Clark, who will visit relatives in her old home until Tuesday.

LOCALS FALL BEFORE CALDWELL WARRIORS

LINE CANNOT HOLD PLUGGING OF IDAHO BACKS IN FIRST HALF

MADDUX STARS FOR ONTARIO

Cook, Formerly of Vale, is the Big Factor for Victors—Culbertson's Men Use Forward Pass.

Inability on the part of the center of the line to hold the plunging of the Caldwell backs during the first half of the game cost the Ontario high school football team the game at Caldwell last Friday afternoon. The final score was 9 to 6 in favor of the Idahoans.

As the score indicates the teams were evenly matched. In fact during the second half the locals held their own by use of the forward pass. In this department of the game Maddux was the scintillating star of the Ontario team and netted a large portion of the gains made.

Coach Culbertson's proteges learned soon after the game started that they were in a real battle with the Idahoans depending almost entirely upon old style foot ball. This was sufficient for steady gains thru the line. When the Idaho line held the local plungers a change of tactics was tried successfully in the second quarter which resulted in a touchdown. On the punt out the ball was dropped and Ontario lost a chance to tie the score.

"In the second half, with the ball on Ontario's two yard line an attempted punt out as blocked, the ball going over the fence back of the goal posts where a Caldwell player fell on it. Owing to the obstruction the referee allowed but two points.

New Players Coming.
The local boys are not discouraged by the defeat and are working hard for the game this week with Boise. The line will be strengthened for this contest. Joy Husted will be back in the game and a new man, Pierce will be in the line to strengthen the weak spot. These additions will increase the speed and power of the team materially.

One thing the boys learned at Caldwell was that Cook, the old Vale star was the best man on the Caldwell team and his plunging was hardest to stop.

The following was the line up of the teams:
Caldwell Ontario
Huett Duncan
Right end.
Brenneman Moore
Right tackle
Stovel Korschner
Right guard
Ewing (C) McCulloch
Center

Madden Cronin
Left guard Overstreet

Breshears Holland
Quarterback
Turner Christensen
Right half
Cook Maddux
Fullback
Lewis, Coners Durbin, Pinney

Referee, Vance;	umpire, Sailer;

BOOTLEGGERS DRAW EVEN CENTURY FINE

George Donaldson of Riverside and M. V. Hart of Juntura on pleading guilty of bootlegging in their respective towns when arraigned before Police Judge, C. M. Stearns Tuesday afternoon were handled a neat little package in the shape of a $100 fine. George McLaughlin who worked for Donaldson also admitted guilt and was assessed $25.

These men were brought to Ontario by Sheriff Ben Brown on warrants issued by District Attorney W. H. Brooke to whom numerous complaints concerning illicit liquor traffic in Riverside and Juntura had been made.

Both of these towns have been a source of trouble to the peace officers ever since the dry law went into effect, but owing to their situation, and the accurate advance information sent to the west end of the county by confederates when the sheriff or his deputies started westward it has been almost impossible to secure evidence against any individual.

In passing sentence on Hart and Donaldson on Tuesday Judge Stearns informed them that he took cognizance of the fact that they had been guilty of breaking the statutes before the dry law was in effect, and so far as his court was concerned he wished not to make any man an example but to serve notice that the court would not pass lightly by such offenses.
