The Week With Ontario Citizens

The Tuesday afternoon card club met with Mrs. C. W. Emison's this week.

Attorney Charles M. Crandall was in Ontario on business Monday afternoon.

Miss Justine Clark returned last week from a visit with relatives in La Grande.

The Misses Nell and Mae Platt went to Boise Saturday returning Sunday night.

W. H. Allison came down from his nitrate workings on the Owyhee to spend the winter.

H. C. Boyer left Tuesday morning for a business trip to the interior. He will go as far west as Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Swagler went to Vale Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Brogan, returning home Monday.

Miss Boydell of Nyssa was one of the guests of the Oregon club at its Hallo'een party Tuesday evening.

Jack High of Vale was numbered among the out of town dancers at the Oregon club party Tuesday evening.

The bridge club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. E. Newton where the usual good time was enjoyed.

At the Presbyterian church next Monday afternoon at 2:30 the ladies of the church will hold a rally. A program will be given and uncheon will be served. The women of the community are invited to be present.

Leonard Weese who was operated upon at the hospital last week is reported to be making satisfactory progress toward recovery.

Mrs. W. M. Brown went to Weiser this morning to attend the annual conference of the women's auxiliaries of the United Presbyterian churches of this synod.

Rev. D. E. Baker will preach at the grange hall on the Boulevard Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The residents of that vicinity are urgently invited to be present.

H. C. Boyer left Tuesday morning for an extended trip thru the interior on business for his company. He will go as far as Burns, returning in time, however, to be one of the excursionists Sunday.

Mrs. Ed. Forbes, who has just returned from her home in Honduras, Central America, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Platt. Mrs. Forbes will return on the next boat.

Attorney J. W. McColloch was compelled to remain away from his office during the first of the week on account of a severe sore throat. The ailment, however, yielded to treatment and he is out again.

V. B. Staples is spending the wind-up of the campaign calling on the Ontario voters in the interest of his candidacy for county clerk. The reception he is receiving augurs well for his success at the polls next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Emison accompanied by Mrs. E. M. Gregg and Mrs. Lucy Fox motored to Cow Valley Sunday. The trip and dinner proved a delightful manner in which to celebrate Mr. Emison's birthday.

At a meeting of the directors of the Malheur drainage district on Tuesday the plans and specifications were approved and the record so far prepared submitted to the county court with request for the appointment of appraisers.

One of the steps in the reduction in the postal service in this section was made known this week with the cancellation of mail service on the ponies between Boise and Huntington. Protests of the Boise Commercial club failed to hold the service.

Col. F. S. Taylor received word from Vale Tuesday of the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Brogan of a daughter making the third grandchild for Col. and Mrs. Taylor, for all of which the Colonel was duly elated. "Since the young lady came on Hallo'een," says the Colonel, "I am going to call her Hallie no matter what the christen her."

A. F. Boyer returned this week from an extended trip thru the lower Snake and Columbia river valleys, going as far west as North Yakima, Washington. Mr. Boyer was on a strange trip for him, he was out to buy apples instead of being out to sell them, and he found his task a hard one for the demand for apples in Lewiston, Præwater and North Yakima was unprecedented. He also bought several carloads of potatoes and beans, and these products too he found "sky high."

SKELETON PROMINENT AT OREGON CLUB HALLO'EEEN

One of the pretty Hallo'een parties Tuesday evening was that given for club members and their ladies by the Oregon club at its quarters. The hall was tastily decorated, shocks of corn rimmed with pumpkins centered the while a frieze of witches and jack o lanterns bordered the dance hall.

In the billiard room festoons of yellow and black arched the table on which the refreshments, "red hot," apples, doughnuts and cider, were served by Charles Carver, who would have drawn a hot reception from Cotton Mather had he appeared in his serving costume in old Plymouth. On the billiard table rested "Clementine," as ghastly skeleton enshrouded and weird in the gloom when the party opened to hear the story of "her life" told by president A. F. Riddle of the club.

Following this opening number 21 couples enjoyed a dance and dinner and a vocal solo by James E. Smith. The party was an auspicious opening for the club's social season.

Lackey Misses Thatcher.
James Lackey is regretting these days that he must forego the pleasure of Col. Charles W. Thatcher, the famous good roads booster. The Colonel left the east bound for Ontario to visit with his old Tillicum, Mr. Lackey, but owing to bad roads got hung up in Wyoming. In a letter to Mr. Lackey this week the Colonel fittingly expressed his regret at not being able to reach Ontario to visit with Mr. Lackey and call on Superintendent E. G. Bailey and E. C. Van Petten.

ONTARIO

OREGON

Beginning next Sunday Ontario devotees of the silent drama will see the first of the justly famous Metro pictures. Of all the producing companies now serving the public with picture plays the Metro is the premier. In search for the highest class of entertainment Manager S. D. Dorman has added the Metro to his other service and is thus equipped to give the patrons of his house an exceptionally clean, high class entertainment ever evening.

South American Travelogues.
Last Wednesday night, in conjunction with the study class of the Women's club Manager Dorman began the South American travelogue series. The first pictures gave an idea of the educationally value of this series. It is certain that before the last of these pictures is shown next April that Ontario citizens will have a real conception of what South America is. In view of the great European war and the natural interest the citizens of the United States have in developing trade with southern continent these pictures are of timely interest. To say the least the pictures are both highly interesting and of real educational value.

Coming Stars—Fred Mace.

On Monday evening, November 6 "Crooked to the End" is the Triangle Kay-Bee production which will entertain Dreamland visitors. The story is one of the thrilling adventure type with honest men the victims of clever rogues. Among the hair-raising episodes is the fall of a street car over a cliff, itself a startling revelation of what the movie superman has to do to get the thrills.

Geraldine Farrer in "Temptation."

Since she has temporarily foregone the opera stage for the screen Geraldine Farrar has achieved unusual honor. The rise in the drama of pantomime has been even more meteoric than it was in the operatic world. She is one of the brilliant actresses of the day.

"Temptation" will reveal Geraldine Farrar for one of the few times in her artistic career in a modern role with the present day dramatic theme. The story of the play concerns the trials and hardships endured by a young American girl to obtain a hearing before grand opera audiences. On this account it will not be easy to entirely disassociate the star and incidents of "Temptation" from some of the prima donna's own personal appearances in her climb to the top of the operatic profession. A glimpse is had of life back of the scenes in a big opera company.

"Temptation" will be shown in Dreamland Wednesday, November 8. Among those who appear in support of the star are, Theo. Roberts, Pedro de Cordoba, Raymond Hatton and Elsie Jane Wilson.

An Invitation to Particular Housewives

Of all the business with which we are favored that which comes to us thru the mails or by wire or phone is the most appreciated.

We have never taken a correspondence course in "salesmanship." The best form of "solicitation" with which we are familiar, is to so execute an order that we shall merit a continuance. We have as many "particular" customers as we have leaves in our ledgers. If your name is on our books you are in the "particular" class with us. Years of experience in catering to the wants of the people has taught us many lessons, not only in how to sell, but better still in how to buy.

This fall we have keep in mind that Quality is the first consideration.

Get your name on our list of "particular" customers and try out our service during November.
