The Week With Ontario Citizens

Mrs. Looney of the Owyhee was an Ontario visitor Saturday and Sunday. The Episcopal Guild will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. A. Fraser.

Mrs. Lucy Fox entertained the Teachers' Clu Monday night at her home.

The Tuesday Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kellogg this week.

Col. George Waters, the Weiser auctioneer, was an Ontario visitor Wednesday.

Alex McPherson is in town from his ranch west of the city and is employed at Rader's during the holiday rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Morfitt of Unity were in Ontario Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Morfitt's sister, Mrs. Carille.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Wood and family left last Thursday for Portland where they will spend the holidays with relatives.

During the absence of A. J. Whiteside from the Ontario Hardware company's store, Don Platt has been performing his work.

Mrs. J. C. Gilham stopped off on her way from Vale to her home in Townsend, Mont., to spend Sunday with Miss Emma Clark.

T. W. Claggett, of the Eastern Oregon Land company was absent from his desk several days this week suffering from a severe attack of grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummins of Vale came down from the county seat Monday to visit with their son, Frank, who has been ill for several days at the Moore Hotel.

Mrs. Whiteside has been very ill for several days this week, making it impossible for her son, A. J. Whiteside to be at his work at the Ontario Hardware company.

Homer Roberts of the Malheur Enterprise, of Vale, assisted the Argus this week by operating the linotype Wednesday and Thursday during the absence of Bert Wheelon.

W. B. Hoxie of Nyssa was an Ontario visitor Monday but paused long enough to say that Nyssa is progressing nicely with its plans for a flour mill and other improvements.

The epidemic of grip which has manifested its presence in Ontario struck the family of Attorney P. J. Gallagher confining several of the children to their homes this week.

L. C. Carson has sold his interest in the Ontario Dairy to Oliver Bingham with whom he was associated. The deal took place December 1 and Mr. Bingham is now in complete charge of the business.

Mrs. Victoria Blackburn who has been so unfortunate during the past year, having undergone several operations last summer and more recently suffered from an attack of typhoid was taken to the hospital this week for another operation.

Mrs. William Hanley of Harney county arrived in Ontario from the interior on Monday on her way out to spend the Christmas holidays. When she was in Ontario Mrs. Hanly was not certain whether she would spend Christmas in Portland or in the East. Her husband passed thru Ontario last week bound for Washington, D. C., where he will watch congress at work and incidentally lend all possible aid in getting some measures thru for the benefit of Oregon.

Mrs. M. V. Hart of Juntura and Mrs. Frank G. Jones of Westfall were in Ontario this week for several days visiting friends.

Bert Wheelon of the Argus force went to Burns on business Monday planning to return Wednesday but was delayed inadvertently until Thursday. During his absence Homer Settle of Payette occupied the "back shop."

Born—Saturday, Dec. 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baer, a baby son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown of Venador arrived in Ontario this week on their way out for the winter. They will go to Portland from here and thence to California and later go to Texas. They expect to return about February. Mr. Brown declares the interior still happy and prosperous and says that the ranchers there are not worried over the pending section homestead bill, which he believes will ultimately be a good thing for the development of the country.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Still the glorious good work continues. One was converted last Sunday and three additions to the church. Large crowds attended the services, and the spiritual atmosphere still prevails. Souls are being weighed in the Gospel balances and are found wanting.

Topics for next Sunday: 11 A. M. "Human Responsibility." 7:30 P. M. the general topic "The Gospel of Deliverance." Hear this tender pathetic address.

B. Y. P. U. meeting at 6:30. Brother Irving Harris will give echoes of the Boys' conference at this meeting. There will be baptismal services in the evening at the close of the regular services.

A hearty invitation is extended to the public to attend all the services. The same kind of welcome to all classes of people.

D. E. BAKER, Pastor.

Schuyler Royston returned from Portland Stock show Saturday. He reports it rainy in Portland, but a fine show.

Thos. W. Claggett missed a number of his fine flock of turkeys December 7 and reported the matter to Marshal Harry Farmer. Mr. Farmer worked on the case for several days and found that Ernest Richardson and Grief Grimes, aged 17 and 20 had sold them to a local poultry dealer. The boys were taken before Judge G. L. King where they confessed and received beside a stern lecture a fine of $25 each. The judge ordered the boys to make the payments monthly and to report to him. Their parents also promised to watch them more closely in the future.
