

BOULEVARD.

Some weeks ago we handed our rural mail carrier, O. F. Neece, a small bouquet for his regularity over almost impassable roads, but since thinking the matter over we believe he deserves a much larger one. Friday March 30th he completed eight years as carrier on the Boulevard route 1. During that time he has missed only six trips on account of weather conditions. When we consider the fact that for several miles his route is over the worst road our county affords in wet weather and that some of those winters have been pretty severe this seems an enviable record. Again when he considers that Mr. Neece has to keep both car and horses to be ready at all times and with high priced gasoline, hay at $25 per ton and grain high we feel he needs all the bouquets we can pass to him if he stays on the job.

G. W. Kaylor moved his cattle Monday to their summer range on the Owyhee while J. D. Billingsley took his sheep to early range near Juntura and the Wyoming Sheep Co. left their feed ground near L. A. Walker's ranch.

Mr. Wilson from near Payette brought 400 head of stock cattle as far as L. A. Walker's corral Friday, where he stopped for the night procuring hay from L. H. Patton Saturday they were taken on to the range.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Ingle attended the funeral of Mrs. Clayton near Fruitland Monday. The two families were close neighbors some years ago in Kansas.

The play, Back to the Farm, was enjoyed by a good crowd last Friday night. Everyone pronounced it as "splendid" each one performing their part in a most creditable way.

Dude Rutherford of Ontario moved his family Monday to the B. B. Wood ranch on the Boulevard for the summer. We welcome them heartily.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden Clement accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Stover and Mrs. Helen Clement motored to Payette Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Rose, Mrs. Adam Rose and Mrs. C. U. Stover were entertained at the Herbert Stewart home Wednesday.

John Wood also shipped a large band of ewes which had been fed at H. E. McCarty's to his ranch in the interior.

Gay Stover went to Parma Monday for a short visit with his brother Ben, who is employed at the Kimbrough, Koski sheep camp.

Miss Hortense Wells came out from Ontario an spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. P. F. Countryman.

Chas. Hagood of Cambridge, Idaho, spent the week-end at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Calvin Taylor.

The Boulevard Women's club will meet Wednesday, April 11th with Mrs. Vena Boswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell of St. Paul neighborhood were callers at J. A. Walters Saturday.

Sherry Johnson and wife, Fred Butler and Mr. Whitte were Jamieson visitors Sunday.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Malheur, Ore., to be held at Ontario at 10 a. m., on April 25, 1917, to fill the position of rural carrier at Nyssa, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

HOW ABOUT YOUR EYES?

Dr. M. D. Fleming the Boise eye specialist and optometrist will be in Ontario at the Ontario Pharmacy April 7th and 8th. If your eyes are troubling you, if you are having headaches, the chances are the trouble is with your eyes. Get them corrected now. All work guaranteed. M. D. FLEMING. —Adv.
