BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Last Sunday was a great day for us. Great interest prevailed. New members were received into the church. On account of sickness the baptismal services were postponed until next Sunday evening. Topics for next Sunday the 15th:
11 a. m. Common Sense vs. Fanaticism. 8 p. m. The War. This is the second in a series of addresses on world wide conditions. The big re-organized chorus choir will render special music for the occasion. The morning theme will be the first of a series of addresses on the general topic, True Bible Holiness. Get this address and keep the connection through. A hearty invitation is extended to strangers.

D. E. BAKER, Pastor.

Congregational Announcements.

Ten persons were received into the Congregational fellowship at the Easter communion. The program by the young people of the Sunday School was well attended and much appreciated. The subject for next Sunday morning will be, "The Unsocial and the Unhappy." In the evening, "The Call to Arms," address by Hon. R. W. Swagler.

Easter Cantata.

It was first time first served at the Easter cantata given at the Congregational church Sunday evening. Big chairs, little chairs, Primary Department chairs and backless benches in the rear were all taken and some late comers stood throughout the service. One and all pronounced the cantata. "Resurrection Morn," by Chas. Gabriel one of the best home talent musical performances given here for a long time. The rendition not only speaks highly for the native talent, the hard work of the director and members of the chorus but is also a strong commendation of the value of the musical training given in our public schools, eight of the performers being High School students.

The Call to Arms.

The ordinarily subdued and tranquil evening service at the Congregational church, will give way next Sunday evening to a "Patriotic" Mass Meeting. Patriotic music, inspiring address, pledge of allegiance to the Flag and other interesting features. Mr. R. W. Swagler, our county attorney will be the speaker of the occasion. Come and hear and join in. Cut out the pledge of allegiance and bring it with you. "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."
