

DEAD OX FLAT

The flat was visited by another blizzarding Saturday night. Everyone arising Sunday morning was greeted by a fierce cold wind and a dashing snow which lasted far into the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Langley returned to the flat last week from Roseman, Mont., where they spent the past winter. They say it is all of such winters they ever want to experience.

Mrs. Robinson returned to Montana where she teaches school, about a fortnight ago. She reports so much snow the stages refuse passengers and she had to employ a private conveyance to take her to her destination.

A T. McDonald took a load of rye to his homestead last Friday, a week, and seeded 40 acres for G. R. McDonald. He returned to the flat last Thursday and resumed work on the L. L. Culbertson place.

A splendid rain fell here last Wednesday night. Alfalfa fields are beginning to show green and the "spring twitter" makes one think he is getting a new crop on life.

L. C. Higby moved his well drill from the lower flat to Fruitland one day last week. He was also a visitor on the flat Sunday, a week.

On account of shortage of feed Connor and Fields are herding their cattle on the North Jacobsen Gulch. They have their camp at the Jewey Rice Crossing.

G. R. McDonald submitted final proof on his homestead last Wednesday. Levi Crull and A. T. McDonald went to Vale with him as witnesses.

I. C. Thompson had bad luck with one of his mares last week in foaling. The colt had to be dismembered and it was thought for a time he would lose the mare but he thinks now the mare will live.

Jewey and Chas. Rice are sowing 90 acres of spring rye for Roland Hall.

A. C. Witbeck went out with his team to work last Sunday. He wears a big smile since he became "dad."

It is reported M. S. Spaulding would like to be back from Kokomo, Ind., where he spent the winter. He was too close for comfort to one of those tornadoes.

Chas. Darnell has charge of the Spaulding and Langley places this year.

G. W. Mathews is improving a tract of land at the foot of the Putnam hill.

Oliver Mayfield has filed on a homestead back of the Moore's Hollow country.

John Mathews has taken a homestead in the Brogas country.

Levi Crull went to Weller Friday to fill a lot for Frank Langer, his son-in-law.

Fletcher Bitterly has rented the Jesse Newton place and moved there last week.

Recent recruits to the army from this locality are a farm hand of I. L. Culbertson and a young son of Mr. Lauer who resides on the place formerly owned by Mr. Horabangh.

Sheep have suddenly vanished from the bottom and are now scrapping each other for a spear of grass on the hills.—Dead Ox.

FAY CLARK, County Superintendent of Schools. Adv.—15-3t.

Could Suit Her. "Do you guarantee these colors fast?" asked the customer at the hosiery counter. "Certainly not, madam," replied the new clerk in the fullness of his knowledge. "Black is never considered a fast color, you know. But I can show you something pretty swift in stripes."—New York American.
