INCASED POSTAGE STAMPS.

Once Used as Money, They Are Now Rare and Valuable.

New York city was the birthplace of a peculiar sort of money, made by putting United States postage stamps in flat circular brass cases...

Mr. Gault manufactured many kinds to be used by business firms in place of small change, as well as the multiple and worn postage stamps used for money at the beginning of the war.

Occasionally a subscriber asks us in regard to these stamps and their value. Our reply always is that they are of considerable rarity and not infrequently they command a big premium.

FIRST "ONE HORSE SHAY."

Quaint Old "Ad." That Told the Public of the New Invention.

A newspaper advertisement in the London Daily Post of Aug. 22, 1728, a copy of which is in the Wisconsin Historical Library, telling of the invention of the one horse shay, affords an interesting example of the advertising methods at that date.

Varieties of Bananas.

To most persons by the temperate zones a banana is a banana. But the truth is that there are over thirty known varieties of the fruit, with as great or greater variation in character as the different kinds of apples.

We want so much to put one of our electrically operated Apollo Player-Pianos in a home in Ontario that we will make a big discount on the first one, knowing that enough orders will follow to warrant the sacrifice.
