Importance of the Beard.

The importance of the beard was fully recognized in the middle ages. Here is a passage quoted by J. A. F. Orban in "Sixtime Rome" from a letter of the writer, Bartolomeo Catena: "It is well that those who have to lead and govern should have a long and fine beard. And I can assure you that the government of cities and provinces has been given to more than one prelate because he had a long and fine beard; otherwise he were not worthy that honor."
