Bevo
A BEVERAGE

Bevo is a great favorite in the Army Canteens, where none but pure, soft drinks may be sold. After drill or march, you are sure to see a long line of hot and dusty-throated soldier boys making a bee line for Bevo. They know that there lies complete satisfaction, full refreshment and pure wholesomeness.

At home or abroad—at work or play—between meals or with meals, you will appreciate what we have done for you in making this triumph in soft drinks.

You will find Bevo at inns, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, picnic grounds, baseball parks, soda fountains, dining cars, in the navy, at cantinas, at mobilization camps and other places where refreshing beverages are sold.

Bevo—the all-year-'round soft drink

Guard against substitutes. Have the bottle opened in front of you, first seeing that the seal is unbroken and that the crown top bears the 'X'. Sold in bottles only, and bottled exclusively by

SCHOOLS MAKE SPLENDID SHOWING AT THE FAIR

The exhibits of the various schools of the county in the exhibit hall at the fair grounds attracted considerable attention and the work of the school children as displayed received much commendation, arousing considerable interest in the things that are occupying the minds of the coming generation. The schools of the county that were represented were Valley View, Jamieson, Nyssa, Owyhee, Juntura and Brogan. Owing to a change in the faculty of the local schools and the late arrival into the field of the new superintendent no exhibit from the Ontario schools was made this year. However, Masters Leo and Cecil Thompson, young lads of the city graded school, gave an individual exhibit that was most creditable, their specialty covering agricultural products quite extensively.

These boys carried off several prizes, each of them winning three blue and three red ribbons.

The Valley View school received two blue ribbons and one red ribbon. Lola Rees receiving first premium for best pen and pencil sketch under 16 years; Lawrence Burr won first on best squash and Ida Johnson won second on best crocheted yoke.

The Jamieson school succeeded in winning one blue ribbon and four red ones, Jessie Morrison receiving a blue ribbon for best crocheted yoke; Veda Inman claimed second on best hand bag, and Jessie Morrison second on best hand embroidered article and also second on best plain dress machine made. Veda Inman also captured second on one other article.

The Nyssa school received first premium for having the most attractive booth, and her pupils secured three blue ribbons and one red. Floyd Evans securing first on best collection of wild flowers, pressed and mounted, and Edna Dennis secured two firsts on best hand bag and best hand embroidered article; she also carried off second for the best hand made apron.

The first premium was awarded to the Owyhee school for having the most attractive booth and two other blue ribbons were taken away by this school; also four red ones. Mandie Clark captured first on the best sewing project; and the Owyhee Industrial club claimed first on best general club exhibit. Red ribbons were given Eugenia Pratt for the best three specimens of darning, to Netta Bigelow for the best canning project; to Eugenia Pratt for the best pen sketch and to Harry Pratt for the best bird house.

The Juntura school exhibit displayed much work in map drawing, one of these being a splendid reproduction of the South American continent, showing many of the commercial products as well as native animals most clearly. Henry Dargie and Mary Hoffman of this school each won respectively first and second premiums for the best map of Oregon showing the principal cities, rivers, etc.

A general school exhibit which displayed much domestic art and manual training work occupied a booth and also claimed many ribbons. Erma Von Readen and Merle Boswell of Vale won respectively first and second premiums for best hand bag over 13 years of age. Margaret Drain and Margaret Blackaby carried off respectively first and second for best dressed doll for pupils under 13 years and Marcella Dearborn and Laura Hazeltine won first and second for the same for pupils over 13 years of age. Marjorie Wells received second for best machine made apron; Myrl Bingham took second on best six buttonholes; Marjorie Wells first on best hand made apron; Zella Evans first for best six buttonholes by pupil under 13 years; Erma Von Readen second for best three specimens of darning; Derce Dearborn, first, and Myrl Bingham second for best hand embroidered article; Derce Dearborn, second for best specimen of penmanship; Eugene Hale, first, and Milo Wright, second for best mechanical toy; Lawrence Keller second for best machine made dress; Myrl Bingham, first, and Erma Von Readen second for best machine made apron by pupil over 13 years.

On Wednesday afternoon fruit canning demonstrations were given by the schools in which domestic science is taught with the result that Vale and Jamieson received blue ribbons and Owyhee and Brogan took the red ribbons.

Touching a Soldier's Heart.

That the American soldier is very human after all is the opinion of James W. Foley, poet-humorist, who has been speaking to the enlisted men at Army Y. M. C. A. tents and buildings in military posts, naval training stations and cantonments in the west under the auspices of the national war work council of the Y. M. C. A. "I have had the most respectful attention wherever I have spoken," said Mr. Foley who volunteered his services in order to do his bit to make a soldier's life a bit happier and contented. "I have noticed that they especially respond to 'The Tale of the Trail' which ends in this manner: 'I don't set up to be a judge of right or wrong in men; I've lost the trail sometimes myself and may get lost again. So when I see a man who looks as though he'd gone astray, I want to shove my hand in his and help him find the way.'"

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
