'MAKE IT A RED CROSS' WILL BE THE SLOGAN OF CAMPAIGN

The Christmas Red Cross membership campaign will be launched at noon December 17 and will last until the night of December 24.

This campaign is to add 240,000 members in Oregon to the American Red Cross.

A membership costs as little as $1. In fact, in this campaign the greatest emphasis is placed on the $1 membership, because it is believed this will be responsible for enlisting the greatest number of people under the Red Cross banner. The drive is not for money, but for members.

A complete state organization has already been perfected under Henry E. Reed, state campaign manager. The Ontario district campaign manager is A. L. Cockrum and headquarters are at the City Hall.

In brief, the effort of every county in the state is to enlist 20 per cent of its population under the Red Cross. Irrespective of whether members have joined previously or not, they are asked to join again in the Christmas Drive, with the assurance that there will be but one drive a year in the future and that the week preceding Christmas. Thus "Make it Red Cross Christmas" is resounding over the country. Special church services will be held December 16.

"Every man and woman in Oregon must join the Red Cross" is the Oregon Slogan.

Prominent men and women all over the state are enlisting their services in the campaign. Membership funds are devoted to war work of the Red Cross, a percentage accruing to the local chapter which is expended on surgical, hospital supplies and other requirements for the war work of the chapter.

METRO WONDERPLAY COMBINES DRAMA AND ART PICTURES

Magnificent scenery, mighty mountains, and majestic rivers which suddenly leap down the rocks in the form of snowy cascades, make of the Metro wonderplay, "The Jury of Fate," a true travel-picture to which is added a supreme love story. This five-part feature will be seen at the Dreamland Theatre on Sunday.

The story of "The Jury of Fate" is placed in the Canadian Mountains. There are beautiful views of the St. Lawrence River and the Thousand Islands. Into this natural background fits perfectly the winsome personality of Jeanne Labordie (Mabel Tallafiero) contrasted with which is that of her wilful, sickly brother Jacques, also played by the versatile star. Remarkable photography shows brother and sister at the same time, by a clever use of double exposure.

Other characters in keeping with the surroundings are the half-breed, Francois Leblanc, portrayed by Frank Fisher Bennett, the young surveyor, Donald Duncan (William Sherwood); Henri Labordie, played by Albert Tavernier, and the French Canadians, father and son, played by Bradley Baker and H. F. Webber.

THE UNIVERSAL INSTRUMENT

Thirty years ago the telephone was a luxury. Today, through personal initiative and private enterprise, it has become a necessity within the reach of everybody. Where once a business had but one telephone with a limited talking range, today that business has service with a range three-quarters of a continent broad, and every branch of every business is linked to every other by an intercommunicating telephone system.

The telephone has earned its responsible place and there are now 8,000,000 Bell telephones in this country, over which go 26,000,000 talks daily.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.
