High School Notes

A Thrift Stamp campaign has been decided upon by the High School student body. There will be competition between the different classes to see which class will buy the most thrift stamps. It is expected that the High School will buy a thousand dollars worth of stamps.

Friday evening at the Opera House our H. S. Basketball teams, boys and girls, played two interesting games against the Fruitland teams. In both games we were victorious, the girls score being 4-14, the boys 19-10.

Last Friday morning Judge Biggs addressed the assembly on the legal profession. His talk was very interesting as well as beneficial.

Jesse Burrell came to the school building last Thursday morning and took a picture of the Teachers' Training Class for the Annual. Of course it will be better than any of the other class pictures, so the Pedagogues think.

Monday evening, March 4, the Girls' Glee Club of the O. H. S. under the direction of Miss Mamie Benge, will present the fascinating Indian operetta, "The Feast of the Red Corn." It will be given at the Dreamland and will be well worth seeing.

The girls of the High School met again last Thursday to plan definitely concerning the adoption of a uniform dress. Such enthusiasm was manifested that there was some talk of not waiting until the next school year, but of adopting a uniform for the remainder of this year. However, after some discussion it was decided that the uniform would only be adopted this spring, and that next fall each girl would appear in the official school uniform.

There was no school Friday afternoon as the faculty and students attended the funeral of David Udick. The entire military company, of which David was a member attended in a body.

Rev. Herbert Livingston delivered the sixth of the series of vocational lectures to the High School this morning (Thursday). His topic was "The Ministers and Relative Occupations as a Profession."

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

The Osborn Evangelist Company will open revival services March 10. Services every night except Saturday night, beginning at 7:30.

The Drummer Evangelist, T. H. Osborn, is a member of the International Association of Evangelists, Winona Lake, Indiana.

He is a hard hitter and never misses. He will ruffle some and please many. He is humorous, pathetic, unique. He is inimitable in his songs.

Mrs. Theo. Dean Callahan who has charge of the music, is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and as a pianist and accompanist she cannot be excelled.

EARL HANNA, Pastor.

J. SHERMAN WALLACE ON CHAUTAUQUA FESTIVALS

Prominent Author and Educator Lectures on the Second Day.

J. Sherman Wallace, well known western educator and writer is coming to the Chautauqua Festival on the afternoon of the second day. Formerly head of the Department of Public Speaking of McMinville College in Oregon, he achieved an enviable reputation as an educator and is peculiarly fitted to deal with the problems of education from the platform.

J. SHERMAN WALLACE

During the past summer he was one of the feature lecturers on one of the largest Chautauqua circuits in the country.

His lecture, "The Salvation of America," is a subject of interest to every man, woman and child in this community. Mr. Wallace presents it in a manner that will hold and grip every person in the audience. It is a sound, constructive lecture and yet one illuminated with flashes of splendid humor. A highly interesting message—hear it.

WORLDS IN THE MAKING

Dr. Carpenter Presents Great Subject in Popular Form.

Probably no lecture during the Chautauqua Festival will create a more profound impression than Dr. A. D. Carpenter, the eminent scientist and astronomer.

If you can visualize a motion picture machine large enough and with a lens powerful enough and so adjusted as to enable it to "take" and then project upon the screen, worlds upon worlds whirling in space, with our sun, moon, earth and stars as pivotal centers of the entire celestial phenomena, you get some idea of Carpenter's astonishing lecture at our Chautauqua. "Worlds in the Making."

DR. A. D. CARPENTER

HASTENED RUSSIAN COLLAPSE

"We must not overlook the fact that Russia collapsed, not because of the Germans on her borders, but because she failed to organize and feed her own citizenship," the food administration announced.

"We must be warned that if we are to emerge victorious from this war we cannot risk the collapse of another of our associates in this war from this cause.

"Anybody that is looking for the collapse of the German people on the food question had better turn around and look at the moon, because the results will be the same. Germany is in no more danger of collapsing on that score than we are, if as much."

No Promotion.

"What business did you say the boss was in?" asked the clerk.

"Why, he's a promoter," replied the superintendent.

"Well, there must be some mistake. He's never promoted me. I've held the same insignificant job ever since I've been here."—Yonkers Statesman.

His Suspicion.

"Well, whaddy you want?"

"I am the man who was married in the cage of wildcats."

"I ast ye whaddy you want?"

"I thought I would like to look into the cage again. I fear I left my wife there and took one of the wildcats."—Houston Post.

THE UNIVERSAL INSTRUMENT

Thirty years ago the telephone was a luxury. Today, through personal initiative and private enterprise, it has become a necessity within the reach of everybody. Where once a business had but one telephone with a limited talking range, today that business has service with a range three-quarters of a continent broad, and every branch of every business is linked to every other by an intercommunicating telephone system.

The telephone has earned its responsible place and there are now 5,000,000 Bell telephones in this country, over which go 25,000,000 talks daily.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.
