A Mean Look.

There are people right in this vicinity who seem to always have a mean look and a crabbed, fault-finding disposition. This may be due to a disordered stomach, constipation or a headache resulting from these disorders. When such is the case a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will soon make them cheerful and happy. These tablets have met with much success in the treatment of those ailments.

Parma Water Lifter

Notice is hereby given that "The Parma Water Lifter," of Parma, Idaho, is doing its "bit" to win this war. In that it is seeking to help you pump more water with less power, to irrigate more land, to raise more wheat, corn, barley, oats, potatoes, to make more flour, to feed more men. To win this war, to establish democracy, restore freedom, safety, and make happy homes; to drive out the despoilers, to restore to the world a very great and lasting peace.

Let us show you how to do this bit. A post card will get you the desired information. For further particulars, concerning this deed of good will toward humanity, write,

Why We Are At War With Germany

By Ephraim Douglass Adams, Executive Head, History Department Leland Stanford Junior University.

Germany believes that she has the right to dominate the world. Her militaristic autocracy believes that this war is a step toward such world domination, but that German demands for the present may rest satisfied with substantial gains in Europe. For years German political writing has been full of "terms of peace" after a war, and today those terms remain unaltered. The Russian negotiations have served to prove that what has for a long time been public opinion, is now Official opinion. The quotations will show this.

First, the more general purpose: "If we come victorious out of this war, we shall be the first people on the earth, a rich stream of gold will pour over our lap." "Expansion of our power both east and west, if possible also over seas; political and military domination combined, indissolubly connected with economical expansion, this is our war aim." "The territory open to future German expansion must extend from the North Sea and the Baltic to the Persian Gulf, absorbing the Netherlands and Luxemburg, Switzerland, the whole basin of the Danube, the Balkan Peninsula and Asia Minor."

Second, the immediate aims: "Our relations with Turkey have drawn us into this war. . . the Bagdad Railway must be extended by us to the open sea, even to India itself." "Belgium must remain under German domination. . . there exists no better line of attack for the German army in a future war with France, whom it is necessary to weaken to such a degree that she can never again be dangerous to us." "Will anybody believe that we will hand over the lands which we have occupied in the West, on which the blood of our people has flowed?" "We are not an institute for lengthening the life of dying states."

But it is on Poland and Western Russia that Germany has all along fixed her eyes. "We ought not to let fall the sword from our hand before we have assured our future. Our eastern boundaries must not remain where they are." "Livonia, Kurland, Esthonia, have for more than seven centuries been sister countries united through German traditions. It is true Germans do not yet represent 10 per cent of the inhabitants; but their character filters through the whole." "Let us bravely organize great forced migrations of the inferior peoples. Posterity will be grateful to us. We must coerce them! This is one of the tasks of war. Such forced migrations may appear hard, but it is the only solution. . . The inefficient peoples, discouraged and rendered indifferent to the future by the spectacle of the superior energy of their conquerors, may crawl slowly towards the peaceful death of weary and hopeless senility." The writer of this was here viewing especially the non-German populations of South America.

How is America interested in the European political and territorial results of this war? Well, first, we are at war. Germany believes that peace now, on the terms she outlines, means a Germany victorious. That means a continuance of military autocracy in Germany—a continuance of an aggressive policy—a continuance of German faith in its special destiny to rule the world.

Against that German ideal we are fighting. But we are also fighting to save the Americas from the "NEXT STEP" in German imperialism. In the first year of the war, the one one great fear expressed by German officers was that a long war in Europe would "cause America to wake up." Wake up to what? Not the need of American participation in the war. The German officers thought America negligible for this war. But they did, and do, fear that America would awake to the danger to herself, her ideals, her institutions, her interests, and that being awakened, Germany's next step in world domination would be harder than the present one.

There is no hope of a changed Germany—of establishing those peaceful and friendly relations which should determine international conduct—if Germany gains her objects, or any part of them, in this war. She has set her heart upon certain material objects. We must see to it that she does not gain them. Then her first step blocked, we may hope that her people may awaken from their dream of empire. We fight for a world peace, yes; but we also fight for self-preservation, and our best chance to save ourselves is this present moment—now.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Republican Voters of Harney and Malheur Counties:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the position of Joint Representative from this District in the next session of the Oregon Legislature, subject to your will in the matter.

If nominated and elected, it will be my aim to promote legislation that will enable the State to provide means for the care of the families of enlisted men; to provide for the protection of Oregon homes and industries, and to carry out the war to a successful and early conclusion.

I will also promote and work for legislation that will tend to increase the production of food stuffs, and prevent profiteering in the marketing of the same. I believe that our first and most important business is to win this war, and next to that, the encouragement of farm production, and if nominated and elected my efforts will be devoted to this policy as well as other meritorious legislation.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF MALHEUR. Ernest R. Maus, Plaintiff, vs. Stella Mann, Defendant.

To STELLA MANN, the above named defendant:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 15th day of April, 1918, the same being the last day of the time prescribed by order of the Court directing service of summons in said suit to be made upon you by publication, and if you fail so to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the said Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, to-wit:

For a decree of said Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and granting the plaintiff an absolute divorce from you, and awarding the plaintiff the custody of Cleo Mann, Minnie Mann, and Charles Mann, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, and for all other relief demanded in said complaint.

You are further notified that this summons is served upon you by publication in pursuance of an order of the Hon. Dalton Biggs, Judge of this Court, which said order was made and entered in said cause on the 5th day of March, 1918, and directed that this summons be published once each week for six consecutive weeks in the "Ontario Argus," commencing with the issue of March 7, 1918.

The first publication of this summons is on March 7, 1918, and the
