

THERE is only one way to give to the Red Cross--give till your heart says stop. A little contribution is only a salve to pride.

This is not to say that contributions of only one dollar, or even of only one nickle, are not desired--and needed.

For you to give $5 when you can give $25---for you to give $25 when you can give $100, or to give $100 when you can give $500---is to dodge the heaviest obligation this war has laid upon you.

For remember, this is not a charity:---this is a duty.

This is not a time to give because others give. This is a time to give because others need.

No man can tell how much you ought to give. Except this: that "Over There" the need is so great that only by cutting to the quick, only by giving all that you think you can give and then more---only by giving not a little of your excess but much of it--only by taking from your own children and from your wife and from yourself, can the needs of the men who are fighting for you and the needs of the children of the men who have died for you be met.

Ask your own soul how much it should be!

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up aimost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country. It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restura-tion throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

it is there to help your soldier boy in the need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.
