UMATILLA COUNTY MAN CLAIMS ONTARIO BRIDE

A very simple but pretty wedding took place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken, when Miss Myrtle Marjory Milliken and Walter M. McCutcheon of Nolin, Oregon, were united in marriage by the Rev. R. A. Coates.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a plain georgette crepe gown and carried as her bouquet a large sheaf of Japanese tea roses. Roses were also used in decorating the various rooms. Only a few of the bride's immediate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony.

The young couple left on the evening train for Nolin, Oregon, where they will make a brief visit. From there they are going by auto to Vancouver, Wash., and will visit there with Mr. McCutcheon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCutcheon.

Mrs. Walter McCutcheon graduated from the Ontario High School in 1915 and is well known in Ontario. Since her graduation she has taught school in Oregon and Idaho with great success. Mr. McCutcheon has a store at Nolin and also is postmaster there.

ONTARIO'S LIST OF WAR BRIDES HAS AN ADDITION

Miss Gladys Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Allen, who came here from Boise last November, was married to D. E. Weaver, of Ontario Tire & Rubber company at Payette by Rev. P. Monroe Smoek Friday, June 14. Mr. Weaver will leave June 30 for Vancouver Barracks where under the selective service act he has been appointed a vulcanizer at the Fort. The plans of the young people are indefinite. For the present they will live in Ontario but if Mr. Weaver is permanently assigned to Vancouver Barracks Mrs. Weaver will join him there.

Little Ruth Hunter, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hunter, celebrated her sixth birthday Tuesday afternoon and invited twelve of her little friends to enjoy the delicious ice cream and cake which were served as refreshments late in the afternoon. Those who were present were Dorothy Prinsing, Claude Ferguson, Ruth Hunter, Max Taggart, Corinne Hanna, Robert Howe, Louise Hunter, Hagan Moore, Mildred Lull, Jimmy and Richard Brooke. Miss Pauline Jaquish directed the games for the little folks.

Another delightful party last week was that of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tunny's little daughter Catherine. Miss Catherine was five years old Sunday but the party was held Saturday afternoon. The time passed quickly with games and other amusements. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served to the little guests. These were Ruth Homan, Helen Payne, Max Taggart, Catherine Tunny, Jean Alker, Ma ettel Dorr and Boyd Rasmussen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rasmussen had as their guests at dinner Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Anderson of Dillon, Montana. Mr. Anderson is leaving soon in the service of Uncle Sam.

Ernest, the six-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover West, died Tuesday afternoon after a short illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the undertaking parlors, Rev. Eri Hanna officiating. Burial was made in the Ontario cemetery.

Little Ernest West was born near Emmett six months ago. His parents formerly lived at Ashland, Oregon. Mr. West coming here to work on the drainage construction system. There are four other children in the family, and to these and the sorrowing parents the sincere sympathy of all is extended.

Mrs. R. E. Wheelon and daughter arrived Tuesday evening to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Rasmussen.

REV. H. A. CAMPO IS NAMED CHANCELLOR

Pastor of Local Church to Assist at Installation of Bishop O'Reilly at Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Rev. H. A. Campo, rector of the local church of the Blessed Sacrament for the past eight years, left Ontario Tuesday for Baker, Or., to assume his new duties as chancellor of the Diocese of Baker City, following the departure of Bishop O'Reilly for Lincoln, Neb. He will accompany the departing Bishop to Lincoln to assist at the installation next Tuesday.

During all of Father Campo's residence here, the generous and whole-hearted cooperation of the people enabled him to build and equip both a substantial church and a suitable residence and to acquire a 5-acre plot for cemetery. Owing greatly to his endeavors, a Council of the Knights of Columbus with a present membership of over 100 members was established.

Father Campo brought about the location in Ontario of the Catholic hospital conducted by the Dominican Sisters who had come to Eastern Oregon at the invitation of Bishop O'Reilly and were considering various towns for making a permanent settlement. It was Father Campo who as Secretary to Bishop O'Reilly addressed a meeting of the Commercial Club which pledged $16,000 towards the building of a hospital and thus secured the institution for this city.

The retiring pastor leaves a very flourishing congregation whose growth numbers made it necessary last year to henceforth hold two morning services on Sundays. The value of the parish property is conservatively placed at $10,000 with a debt at the present time of only $1500. In appreciation of his devoted labors, the Knights of Columbus presented Father Campo last Sunday with a beautiful gold watch and chain with K. C. charm. The Rev. M. C. Murphy, of Jordan Valley, will be in charge temporarily, beginning with next Sunday until the arrival of the new pastor within six weeks or two months.

ONTARIO BOY GRADUATES WITH WARTIME CLASS AT U.

Among the graduates at the University of Oregon this week was Larue Blackaby, third son of J. R. Blackaby of this city. He is the third member of the family to have received a degree at one of the state institutions. Otto Blackaby started the list at O. A. C. and Earl Blackaby graduated from the U in 1915. William, the fourth son, was a student at the U when he enlisted at the opening of the war last year. He is now in France.

J. M. Conner left this morning for Portland where his father will undergo an operation.

Mrs. J. Prinsing leaves Friday for Tacoma, where she will spend the next two weeks.
