The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Letson was the scene of much enjoyment last Thursday afternoon when a number of former schoolmates and friends gathered there on the lawn in honor of little Miss Gwendolyn Newton, who is visiting Alice Dorman at the present time. The afternoon was spent in games until 6 o'clock when dinner was served to the small guests on the porch. The tables were daintily decorated and similar decorations were used on the porch.

Those present were Gwendolyn Newton, Alice Dorman, Thelma Lampkin of Payette, Margaret Blackaby, Phyllis Watson, Margaret Drano, Alice and Margaret Watson, Alma and Ruth Homan, Lois Prinzing, Mrs. H. H. Whitney, Mrs. S. D. Dorman and Mrs. W. W. Letson.

On Monday evening, July 15, about one hundred people representing the Baptist church gathered at the home of Mr and Mrs. Amos Johnson and spent a very pleasant evening together. The guests of honor for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Penn, Mr. Penn being in the draft list and leaving next Wednesday. Simple refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served late in the evening. A short musical program was given. Speeches were made by Dr. W. J. Weese, Rev. Chas. Blom, Mr. Penn responding. The program closed with a prayer by Evangelist Hunt commending Mr. Penn to God's care and asking our Father to hasten the coming of victory and peace.

Mr. Penn says that he will not return until it can be with a victorious party.

Mrs. F. J. Clemo entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon in honor of her sisters, Misses Margaret and Anna McGivern, who are visiting here with her from Portland. The afternoon was spent in fancy work and music. Lovely refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon to those present, who were Mrs. Walter Glenn, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. J. R. Blackaby, Mrs. F. J. Clemo, Misses Margaret and Anna McGivern, Estelle Currey, Mae Platt and Pansy Mallett.

Garrison Augustus Tureman and Miss Clara Carlile, both of Ironside, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday evening, July 16, by the Rev. Earl Hanna, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hinton and Miss Lillian Lawrence of Ironside made up the wedding party.

AUSTRIANS DRIVEN
FROM PIAVE DELTA

Italians Push Foe to River's
Days' Struggle.

Rome.—Italian troops have completed their operations victoriously at the mouth of the river Piave by hurling the last remnants of the disorganized Austro-Hungarian forces across to the left bank of the river, according to the war office announcement.

"After five days of uninterrupted struggle," says the official communication, "the enemy was completely driven on to the left bank of the new Piave."

The Austro-Hungarian resistance was shattered in the area where the river Piave enters the Adriatic. The Italians pushed forward and reached the right bank of the new Piave from Grisolora to the south of the river and took 400 prisoners.

After desperate fighting the Italians repulsed a counter offensive of the Austro-Hungarians in the direction of Chiesanuova, on the northern Italian front.

On the Asiago plateau the statement chronicles a raid by the French which resulted in the capturing of prisoners and machine guns. Austro-Hungarian attacks between the Fronsela valley and the Brenta were repulsed.

BOULEVARD BREVITIES

The Grange Hall, which has a widespread reputation for its good time dancing parties, was the scene of a benefit dance last Saturday evening, which seemingly surpassed all previous efforts. The crowd was one of the largest ever in attendance at a dance here, 95 tickets having been sold. The ice cream stand and the sale of iced tea also made profitable returns, so that over $100 were cleared for war work. Beauguard's orchestra, always a favorite, furnished the music, thereby contributing greatly to the pleasantness of the affair. Everyone enjoyed a downright good time although the floor was extremely crowded for every dance. The ladies who stood sponsor for the party have learned that their intention of making jellies for invalid soldiers does not meet with the approval of the government, so the receipts for the dance will be divided up among organizations doing war relief work.

Tom Downs in some way unknown to himself took a fall from a loaded hay wagon last week and broke two of his ribs. He was probably overcome by a combination of heat and overwork and collapsed.

The V. V. Hickox family of Kingman Colony spent Sunday at the J. A. Walter home.

Grain is ripe and harvest is now in full blast. The acreage of wheat this year is very large in this part of the country and the crop is generally considered heavier than usual and of first class quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Frakes entertained a large group of the neighborhood young folks at a lawn party on Saturday evening of last week. Many staid to a late hour and enjoyed a good time.

Edna Von Readen has been elected to teach the Kingman Colony school for the coming term. The position is probably the best paying country school in the county, as the salary amounts to $125 per month.

Virginia Smith of Ontario after attending the Boulevard dance spent the evening and Sunday with Jean Conklin. The girls were sorority sisters at O. A. C. last term.

Helen Link of Fruitland spent several days last week visiting with her sister, Mrs. Willard Hall.

Steve Cox returned home last week from Presidio, Cal., where he has been attending the officers' training camp for the past month. Steve was a freshman at O. A. C. last year, and one of a bunch selected from that institution for the R. O. T. C.

HOSPITAL BREVITIES

Joe Carter from New Plymouth was dismissed last Thursday after spending a week as a patient in the hospital.

Mrs. E. I. Edwards had her tonsils and adenoids removed last Thursday but was able to leave for her home in Payette the next day.

W. F. Sackett of Payette was a patient here for a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Gus Davis also of Payette was operated on Sunday but is doing nicely now.

Mrs. H. T. Mackey, another Payette patient, was operated on Monday.

An operation was performed on Mrs. A. B. Lang Monday.

W. A. Tureman from Ironside was operated on Tuesday.

Little John Henggeler from the Fruitland bench had his tonsils and adenoids removed yesterday.

Ed Johnson was another Payette patient to be admitted here Tuesday.

Bryant Guffey from Nyasa has been very ill at the hospital this week and is but slightly better now.

Mother M. Augustine and Mother M. Dominic, who have been visiting here the past week from the Sacred Heart Hospital in Hanford, California, left the first of the week. On their return they were accompanied by Sister Mary Marcellina, who will be there for some time, as the work there has need for more sisters and nurses.

The Methodist Sunday school and church held a farewell reception for H. J. Tensemeyer and family Monday evening, July 8, at the church. Mr. Tensemeyer has been the efficient Sunday school superintendent for some time. We regret seeing him leave. They return to Iowa on account of the feeble condition of his father, the other sons all having been called into the country's service. They left Saturday at noon.

The Methodist Sunday school held its annual picnic Thursday in the Brown grove on the Snake river five miles south of town. Over eighty people sat down to a fine picnic dinner. The day was spent in games, swinging and boating. All present expressed themselves as having a good time.
