Town Topics Tersely Told

Miss Vera Neeb returned Sunday evening from Portland where she has been employed this summer.

Miss Edna Von Heaton returned Sunday from Portland where she spent several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. A. McWilliams and daughter, Miss Ethel, returned from a vacation trip to Starkey, Idaho, and the lakes.

Lorraine McWilliams went to the Payette Lakes region on Sunday.

Jack Taylor is one of the Ontario boys helping build boats to aid in "cleaning the Kaiser." Jack is employed in a shipyard in Seattle.

Miss Mary Hendricks of Portland, one of the new school teachers of the county, visited last week with Mrs. R. R. Echave and this week attended the Teachers' Institute at Vale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Echave motored up from McDermitt, Nevada, last week. Mr. Echave returned to his home while Mrs. Echave remained here to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Connell Cox.

Rev. W. M. Brown, who resigned the pastorate of the United Presbyterian church several months ago, returned to Ontario last Saturday to move his household goods to California. He reports that Mrs. Brown, on account of whose health the family left Ontario, is improving gradually and that they are comfortably located near Los Angeles.

Mrs. Edna Griffin, who has spent the summer attending the sessions of the University of Washington summer school at Seattle, arrived home Monday evening.

Miss Myrta Renge of the High School faculty, who summered at her home in Norman, Oklahoma, reached the city Monday evening.

J. M. Orrell of Barren Valley, who years ago was well known in Ontario, came down to attend the session of the circuit court Monday. He spent the day in Ontario rekindling the acquaintance of old-time friends. He also declared his intention of spending Fair week here to enjoy a vacation.

Mrs. F. P. Widger of Superior, Wisconsin, who was one of the Badger states' representatives at the session of the W. R. C. in Portland, arrived Sunday to spend two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Lees, who, however, was detained in Portland for several days and will not be able to enjoy the first portion of her mother's stay here.

Miss Dorothy Cleveland of Jamieson, who graduated from O. H. S.

with the class of '17, was in the city Monday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Hardman left Saturday evening for Wallawa to visit friends and relatives.

Adrian, better known as Dude, Rutherford suffered a fracture of his right arm yesterday evening.

H. W. Clement has accepted a position with the Studebaker Corporation at the local branch.

C. H. Helmer, the general contractor for the water system, returned Sunday evening from Twin Falls, where he has the contract for digging the ditches on the extension of the new municipal system of that city.

Mrs. E. G. Bailey, formerly of Ontario, arrived in town Tuesday for a short visit with friends.

Manager Mel Dolling of the Malheur Home Telephone company was called to Boise Monday evening.

County Commissioner John Weaver was in town Monday evening. Between water overflowing onto the highways and speed mad motorists, the road overseer has no chance to keep the county highways in shape. Mr. Weaver believes that it will be necessary to prosecute speeders on county highways or there will be no binding material in the roads by next spring. If this is a duty of the County Court Mr. Weaver wants to see some action taken.

Tip O'Neil reached Ontario Monday afternoon from Juntura, Dresser and other interior points. Mr. O'Neil is selling all of his sheep holdings in this section preparatory to getting into the service along with his three brothers. Two of these are now with the victorious Yankee armies over there. In a recent letter one of the boys told of sleeping on ground evacuated the day before by the retreating Hun. "We are sitting on their tails," was the pat description which young O'Neil gave of the situation. Both he and his brother are in the light artillery. The third member of the family is in the navy.
