THE CYCLONE COMEDY

WHAT PORTLAND THOUGHT

"Mabel Normand could rest upon the laurels won by her in this splendid picture, by far the best in which she has ever appeared.

It is wholesome, entertaining, full of humor and fun—thrilling in spots and without anything the most captious can criticize.

No picture unless of special merit could maintain a run of four weeks as this one is doing."

—From Portland Telegram, Feb. 21

WHAT WE THINK

"We recommend Mickey heart and soul, because it contains all the elements that, we believe, real picture lovers demand as entertainment—a little love, a few tears, a certain amount of excitement and suspense, and much joy.

We respectfully request that you come early, as wherever Mickey has played, standing room has been the rule.
