ONTARIO OUTING CLUB HAS FORMED AT PAYETTE LAKES

All the comforts of home, minus some of home's conveniences, but also minus many of home's duties, is the object attained by four Ontario families who have formed the Ontario Outing Club.

The scheme whereby the above results are secured is an adaptation of communism. Not the big socialistic idea that everything is owned in common, but just enough of that alleged panacea for the social ills has been adopted to remove kitchen duties from the lives of the women. This is done by the erection of a community Kitchen and dining hall, picturesquely located on piles out over the waters of the lake. A cook has been employed and life will be sans cooking, sans dish washing, sans worry for the women. Aint it the life?

The members of the club are the families of Frank Rader, E. C. Van Petten, L. Adam and S. D. Dorman, all of whom have cabins near by the community kitchen. The formal opening is scheduled for July 5.

CARD OF THANKS

So far as words can express we wish to convey our heartfelt thanks for the many kind deeds and words of sympathy given us in our sorrow and loss in the death of our beloved daughter Lella. The kindness of friends and neighbors will ever be remembered with a deep sense of obligation.
