LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Chas. H. Blom is visiting at Midvale, Idaho.

Chas. H. Blom and a bunch of boys left Tuesday for a few days camping up the Payette river.

R. N. Stanfield came over from Weiser on Saturday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. C. D. Wood.

Word has been received that Clarence H. Poorman has arrived safely from overseas, and is at Camp Merritt awaiting discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Dean and son of Nampa and Bret Nedry of Nyssa were in Ontario the first of the week. They were registered at the Moore.

Mrs. Ione Tingers of Salt Lake City arrived this week to spend a month or more with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Orcutt.

John Norwood who lives above Vale brot Mrs. Norwood to Ontario Tuesday in order that she might receive medical attention at the Holy Rosary Hospital.

H. C. Boyer and Earl Blackaby who accompanied him returned Saturday night from Jordan Valley. Even the higher altitudes of the valley, and especially the heights of Polson creek hill did not escape the torrid wave that visited this section, they said.

Montie B. Gwinn, ex-President of the Idaho Bankers association, and chairman of the Liberty Loan drives in our neighboring state was in Ontario on business Monday. The shortage of water in the Owyhee ditches was but one of the things that brot Mr. Gwinn to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Field were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when sixteen of their friends dropped in to see them in their new home which they have purchased in Riverside addition. The evening was spent at cards and music, after which refreshments were served and a delightful evening was spent by all.

Mrs. James Farley who is now a resident of Oregon City came to Ontario this week to look after business matters. Mr. and Mrs. Farley have determined to make their home in the paper mill town for the present. Their daughter, Miss Opal Farley, recently completed a business course in a Portland institution and is now employed in Oregon City.

Walter Glenn, formerly of this city, but now Brand Inspector for the Oregon Cattle and Horse Raisers Association at Seattle, arrived in Ontario this week on business. Mr. Glenn says that Mrs. Glenn and their son Wesley, like the Sound City very much, but that the rain "gets him." He also reports having seen man former Ontarians on the streets of the Queen City. Jesse Burrell, formerly photographer here is now located at Bremerton, as is G. W. Abernathy and family.

GONE TO THE YELLOWSTONE

To see if the tales told of the wonders of one of the world's seven wonders, the Yellowstone National Park, are true, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fraser left Ontario Sunday morning. Their son Edward accompanied them as far as Mountain Home. Mr. and Mrs. Fraser are making the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Letson arrived in Ontario Sunday from a month's trip thruout Oregon. During the trip they went down the Willamette Valley and crossed the Cascades to Klamath Falls where they remained for some time.

"I have fished for years, but I never have caught such trout as those taken from Wood River near old Fort Klamath," said Mr. Letson. "We made the drive from Klamath to Ontario, 430 miles in two days, and it was a hard drive, too, across the desert of Central Oregon," said Mr. Letson.

Suppose=

just suppose you went into a restaurant and asked for a steak and suppose the waiter brought you hash, saying that hash would be just as good for you, besides they had plenty of hash and made a larger profit on hash.

What would you do?

Of course you would walk out and go to another restaurant where they served what you ordered. Now, just suppose you went in to a store and asked for a pair of Two Horse Brand Boys' Overalls the best made, the best fitting, the strongest, the longest wearing, "the new pair FREE if they rip kind," and suppose the salesman said we have none of the Two Horse Brand kind, here's another brand—it is just as good.

What should you do?

You should walk out and go to a store where they give you what you ask for. When you order steak you don't want hash, and when you ask for Two Horse Brand Boys' Overalls you don't want an imitation.

This Trade Mark is on every pair of Two Horse Brand Boys' Overalls made and guaranteed by Levi Strauss & Co., San Francisco and the guarantee that goes with it is A new pair FREE if they rip All Two Horse Brand Overalls are Dyed with Genuine Indigo Awarded Grand Prize at P. P. I. E.
