DEER SEASON OPENS ON SEPTEMBER 1 THIS YEAR

The deer season throughout Oregon will open September 1st this year and will continue opened until October 31st, according to an announcement made by Carl D. Shoemaker, State Game Warden, today. The only exception is in Union and Walla counties where the season will open on September 10th and close on November 10th. Heretofore, the season has opened on August 15th in District No. 1, which consists of all counties West of the summit of the Cascade Mountains. The season this year is uniform in both districts except in the two counties heretofore mentioned. The bag limit is two deer with horns which is the same as last year.

MODERN CHURCHES A COMMUNITY ASSET

In a neighboring state a banker called the district superintendent over to their new town and told him that as a purely business investment he would pay for the erection of a modern church if the church would provide a pastor. He explained that they had lost several sales of real estate to the men who had families and who were not willing to move into a community without churches. The church is there. A pastor is there. And the town is growing. There is now another chance to add to the church property value and service in this community and it would be a good time to take up the slogan "Onward Ontario." Boast that which the nations now recognize as the ONE institution in which there is the teachings, service and moral influence that lifts civilization to its highest level.

The Rev. James C. Erwin who is conducting a series of meetings at the Methodist church this week recently managed a financial campaign at Havre, Montana, where seven churches united to raise funds to complete the new and modern Presbyterian church, the Episcopal church and the Kennedy Hospital. The other churches co-operating except the Methodist also received funds for needed improvements. The Methodist church already had a modern building equipped for institutional work, but when the business men of Havre proposed that they join in and help in the united campaign to finish the other churches they not only responded but agreed to secure from the Centenary organization an experienced campaign manager to direct their drive. Havre is a town of less than five thousand. The amount asked was $87,500, the pledges announced amounted to $94,000.

After spending a week in Portland where she viewed all the latest creations designed to please the pride of the women of Malheur county, Mrs. M. E. Osborn of The Osborn Millinery returned to Ontario Sunday. Buyers' Week was a greater success than ever, was her observation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blackaby returned Monday evening from their auto trip thru Yellowstone Park.

WHAT KEEPS UP YOUR TOWN?

The mail order catalog champions ask the question, "What difference does it make whether Farmer Smith sends his money away for merchandise or gives it to Merchant Brown to send away for merchandise?"

The answer is that the difference to this community is that it has lost the cost of doing the business plus the net profit of the catalog house. That is important. What keeps up your town? It is the expense and net profit of handling your business.

Now, what is this expense of doing your business that is lost for the community if you buy from the catalogue house, and what does it amount to? The home insurance agent gets the insurance; the home bank gets the interest on part of the money used in conducting a business; the home drayman and his helpers haul the goods to the stores; the home bookkeeper keeps the records; the home salespeople take care of and sell you the goods; the home newspaper advertising tells you about the goods and the proper time to buy, instead of the catalog doing it.

This, with the rents and taxes paid out at home, fuel, light and the merchants' net profit of three to five per cent makes up the cost of handling your business which runs in total from 20 to 40 per cent, according to the line of merchandise handled and the location of the store.

This all goes to the catalog house and its thousands of employees, if you send for your supplies. The community, county and State suffer to that extent. Keep your money at home and make it do its work there.

Mrs. Miles Miller came up from Huntington Sunday to place her little son under Dr. Weese's care.

Miss Dorothy Jaquith attended a meeting of the Northwest Exhibitors' Circuit in Boise Wednesday.
