Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks" "rundowns" "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere. An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleaning, sweetening and refreshing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Douglass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Douglass who leave Ontario this week to make their home in Eugene were the honored guests at a card party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Professors Proved Ability.

Proving their ability as cooks, Professors S. M. Boucher and M. D. Thomas arranged a novel dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Douglass Monday evening. The Prof's "rented" the Douglass home and furnishings for the evening and "cooked" the dinner, served it and played the part of host and hostess in approved style, so the guests declared. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. R. Douglass, F. L. Conrad and P. J. Gallagher, and the cooks.

For Gillard Conover it was a celebration of his eighth birthday, while for Hagan Moore it was the promised reward for being "game" while undergoing the Pasteur treatment following his being bitten by a mad dog several weeks ago. Games were played and refreshments served. Seventeen boys and girls gathered round the birthday cake which was an important part of the menu.

Missouri Guests Entertained.

J. Gallagher, G. K. Aiken, and Messrs. S. M. Boucher and M. D. Thomas. Refreshments were served.
