At The Movies

Besides playing Mahlee, the Eurasian, in "The Red Lantern," which comes to the Dreamland theatre on Wednesday and Thursday next, Nazimova also enacts the totally dissimilar role of Blanche Sackville, an English girl, and half-sister of Mahlee. As Mahlee, in herself a dual personality, Nazimova appears as a brunette; as Blanche Sackville, she is a blonde for the first time in her screen career.

WHEN HUSBAND COMMITS CRIME MUST WIFE PAY?

When a man steals money from his employer and begs his wife to square matters and at any cost prevent his prosecution for crime, what is the price the suffering wife must pay? This is one of the delicate questions answered in a most interesting manner in Pauline Frederick's new Paramount photoplay, "Paid in Full," which will be shown at the Dreamland theatre Friday, September 26.

"The Red Lantern," which comes to the Dreamland theatre on Wednesday and Thursday next, is a play of mysterious China that gives Nazimova, the star of unfathomable depths, a dual role which reveals the tremendous range of her rare artistry. It is a play of deep undercurrents, telling the story of a Eurasian girl—the daughter of two races—who feels the eternal conflict of the alien bloods forever raging within her soul. It is a theme to wake the pulse of the heart and fill the imagination with the irresistible lure of secret Asia—with a splendor like the day and a mystery like the night, where the dancing shadows of the red lantern light seems peopled with the thousand and one malignant devils which fore verhaunt those mystic and enigmatic people of the east. The play resounds with barbaric melody and glows with the gorgeous and varying hues of the Orient.

Wallace Reid's newest picture, "Alias Mike Moran," is a story that proves the folly of deception. If a man tells a lie or deceives, he immediately becomes a slave and remains ensnared until he confesses and clears his conscience. And the ladies aren't excepted.

In this photoplay which will be shown at the Dreamland theatre, Saturday, September 27, Larry Young deceives his sweetheart, his friends and his country by sending another man in his place when he is drafted to serve in the army. Then he has to leave town to make his deception stick. His man goes over, fights and is killed and dies a hero's death. Then Larry is in a pickle. To the world, his family, and his sweetheart, he is a dead man. How can he face them now?

You've seen Bill Hart as a bad man; you've seen him as sheriff; you've seen him on a bucking broncho; and you've seen him in evening clothes.

Now you are going to see Bill as a convict. Oh, yes, you've seen Bill land in prison before, but you've never seen him in a picture that revolves around that theme.

Bill is going to make you get into the soul of a fourteen-year term, who has spent ten long years behind the bars; years that have left their mark, and taken everything from him but his great faith in the woman he loves; his wife.

At the expiration of his tenth year, he is paroled and walks once more into the world of living men. He knows that he will find his wife and his pal ready to welcome him.

His pal is waiting with outstretched hand; but the wife—the wife has married the man who sent him up.

And then comes the big motive—that of revenge.

You'll want to see this photoplay. It comes here next Sunday and Monday. It's an Artercraft picture, and it's name is "The Poppy Girl's Husband."

Camel CIGARETTES

18 cents a package

Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

If you want to know what rare and unusual enjoyment Camels provide smoke them in comparison with any cigarette in the world at any price!

CAMELS are a cigarette revelation any way you consider them! Take quality, or refreshing flavor and fragrance; or, that wonderful mellow-mild-smoothness you never before got in a cigarette smoke! Yet Camels are so full-bodied and so full-of-satisfaction you marvel that so much delight could be put into a cigarette!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes them so irresistibly appetizing! And, the blend explains why it is possible for you to smoke Camels liberally without tiring your taste! You will prefer Camels to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You'll realize pretty quick, too, that among the many reasons you smoke Camels is their freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Once you know Camels you won't take much stock in premiums, coupons or gifts! You'll prefer Camel quality!
