THE ONTARIO ARGUS, ONTARIO, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1919

Ontario's Third Annual Chautauqua Festival Talent Furnished by Ellison-White Co.

Ontario, Oregon, October 17, 18, 20, 21 and 22 FIVE GREAT EVENINGS

Lectures Inspirational

Music Enjoyable

Entertainment Satisfying

First Evening---Tom Corwin

The Joliet Daily News says "Tom Corwine has the most marvelous throat in existence. He is a living wonder, possessing four distinct throats in one, so that he is able to make a concordance of sounds that no other voice has ever accomplished." His humorous sketches, stories and impersonations are irresistibly laughablehear Tom Corwine by all means for an evening of sheer fun and delight.

Buy Your Season Tickets Now

Your Chautauqua Festival is made possible by the local patriotism and public spirit of a group of business men of this community. They have personally pledged themselves to the sale of the tickets necessary to bring the Chautauqua here. They are doing this without the hope of a cent of financial gain, but solely to upbuild Ontario and make it a better place for you to live.

Buy your season ticket today. It will not only bring you a 100% saving over single admissions, but it will put you shoulder to shoulder with the rest of your citizens who are working to make the Chautauqua Festival a genuine success

Read this program carefully. See what a splendid five-nights' offering of instruction, entertainment and information there is in store for you Then think how little it costs to attend on the season ticket plan.

Second Evening--Marshal Louis Mertins "The Poet of the Seven Seas"

As staff poet of the Kansas City Star, author of hundreds of poems and stories in the metropolitan papers and national magazines, Marshall Louis Mertins is well known throughout the country. His latest book "The Wishing Gate and Other War Poems" is now in its third edition. He is the youngest man of his profession to be biographed in "Who's Who in America."

Program Begins 8 p. m. Adults' Season Tickets, $2.00 Children's Season Tickets, $1.00

Third Evening----Chicago Artists Trio

All lovers of good music and entertainment have a great evening in store for them in the coming of the Chicago Artists Trio. These three people stand high in their respective fields of endeavor. All combine delightful personalities with unusual talent. Frances Soule is a brilliant artist who has attracted wide attention in musical circles through her consummate mastery of the harp. Margery Helen Graham, dramatic reader, is one of the leading entertainers of the middle West. Lowel Patton, pianist, was little less than a sensation on the big Seven Day circuit this summer with his straight solos and piano monologues. You'll see new possibilities in the piano after hearing Lowell Patton.

Fourth Evening---Major Thornton A. Mills "Fiddles and Fortunes"

Major Thornton A. Mills has for many years been one of the outstanding figures among the Chautauqua lecturers of the country. He has but recently completed a year in important government work in the Northwest as organizer of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, a patriotic organization of 150,000 workers and operators in the camps and mills of the West.

His lecture at Chautauqua, "Fiddles and Fortunes," is an inspirational message alive with humor, vibrant with optimism, based upon the life of the master violin-maker of Cremona, Antonio Stradivari. It arouses courage, glorifies honest effort and inspires hope.

War Tax Not Included

Fifth Evening----The Sierra Serenaders A Big Musical Program on Closing Night

The Sierra Serenaders will close the Chautauqua Festival in a veritable blaze of glory. There will be costumed songs, instrumental and vocal solos, duets, trios, readings and brief sketches, straight orchestra selections and choruses. No matter what marner of music or entertainment you most fancy you will find it in the program of these five sparkling vivacious girls.

They have personality and musical ability plus. Hear their program on the last evening of the Festival for one of the real musical and entertainment treats of the year.

This Chautauqua was brought to Ontario by the Desire of The Commercial Club, The Public School Faculty and Citizens to aid in the upbuilding of the community. Your support of this effort is needed.

HIGH SCHOOL

running four beginning algebra sections where but two were expected; three manual training instead of two; three freshman English sections in place of two; two sections in both sophomore and junior English where we planned for only one each; three chemistry sections instead of one; two geometry sections, two ancient history sections are now

Major Mills at Chautauqua

CHINA DID NOT LOOK GOOD

and Good Housekeeping. The weekly number of Scientille

Contributed by the Junior English has the best material for a winning with capacity enrollments. toam this fall that she has had in many years. The team averages 158 pounds in weight.

Class.

Weaver.

Election of officers for the High School Annual was held Wednesday and the following students elected: Editor-in-Chief, Frank Dorman; associated editor, Homer Maddox; business manager, Martin Moore; circulation manager, Mary Messe; advertising manager, Cody Butler; athletic editor, Aubrey Dean; art editor, Lola Reese; literary editor, Derce Dearborn.

two well rendered selections.

numbers, to organize new sections teach classes in algebra and freshin several subjects. We are now man English.

Ontario High School football team held; the commercial department is goes to Baker Friday to play Baker full to overflowing, while several High. This should be a good game single sections, covering subjects in as both teams are strong. Ontario various departments, are working

Mr. Eckersly will have charge of The following men will make the the debating teams this year and is tro to Baker Friday: Cody Butler, already formulating plans for the Captain, Ih; Aubrey Dean, c; Mitch- organization of that work. Ontario ell Moore, q; Vernon Butler, re; will enter the Oregon High School Elden Madden, rh; Jack Weaver, lt; Debating League composed of Baker, John Odell, re; Homer Maddox, lg; Malheur, Harney and Grant countles. Richard Adam; Gilbert Dean, fb; The question this year is: "Resolved, Newton Zaller; Monty Duntin, rg; that congress should create a depart-Earl Walters, rt; Hugh Biggs; Lou ment of education with power as defined, with appropriations as provided, in the Smith-Towner bill."

> The high school listened this week to a very instructing talk by Mr. O. M. Plummer, of the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, of Portland, Mr. Plummer spoke of several subjects of vital interest to students, and gave us a talk mightily worth while.

Miss Bessie Turner, of Lansing. The gies clubs are developing rap- Michigan, who has been elected to Idly with regular work under Miss assist in the high school, began her Cranley's direction. On Thursday work last Monday. Miss Turner is morning the general assembly was a graduate of the Michigan Agriculfavored by the Girls' Glee Club with tural College, and has resigned from the Extension Division of Boys' and services, commissioned him Major and detailed him to important war work service in the Northwest.

It has been necessary, because of to take up this position. She will Bring your next order for up-to-date job printing to during the week ending Oct. 7: The Argus office. Satisfaction always.

TO FORMER ONTARIO WOMAN

Mrs. M. B. Stanton who until four years ago lived here in Ontario, but more recently had been a resident of Whittier, California and Hankow, China, is in Ontario this week renewing her acquaintance with old time 7 to 9:30 p. m. friends while enroute to her new home in Cisco, Texas.

Mrs. Stanton was formerly Mrs. Ora Campbell, and with her daughter Miss Violet Campbell was welknown among Ontarians. Last April Miss Campbell was married to a young man of Whittier and is now Mrs. Alvah Connor of the California city.

Mr. Stanton, who while in Ontario, Stanton is enroute to join him. Speaking about her experience in We certainly were glad to see the U. arrangements made which double S. A. again."

While in the city Mrs. Stanton is ties. looking after her local property and declares that the apparent growth of the city, the addition of paving and other improvements is positive assurance of the prosperity of this region and the best indication she could have of Ontarlo's future.

NEW MAGAZINES AT LIBRARY

ing publications have been received us like the weekly visit of an old azine; Century; Field and Stream subscription up to August 1, 1920."

American; Outlook; Literary Digost and Scientific American Supplement; Ontario Argus; Payette Independent; Malheur Enterprise; Jordan Valley Express. From the U. S. Dept. of Labor a bulletin, What is Malnutrition. From the University of Oregon.

The Extension Monitor. Library hours: Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; 2 to 6 p. m. and Tuesday and Thursday, 7 to 9:30 p. m.

CASH GRAIN EQUIPPED TO . HANDLE BULK GRAIN

Many improvements and additions had charge of the drilling of the well in equipment and facilities have rein the South end of town, spent two cently been made at the Cash Grain years in Investigating properties for company's warehouses. The comthe Standard Oil company in China pany has rearranged the old M. M. and Mrs. Stanton was with him there warehouse on the tracks north or for a time. Recently he was trans- Idaho avenue and there installed elefered to the Texas field and Mrs. vating machinery and a number of bins for the storage of bulk grain.

Beside the conveyors for grain a China Mrs. Stanton said: "It was in- new roller, a corn sheller, cleaners b teresting for astime, but not pleasant. and elevators have been installed and the capacity of the company's facili-

THIS HELPS INDEED.

D. H. Kerfoot, formerly of Ontario but now a member of the force in the department of Internal Revenue in Portland, is still interested in Ontario. In a effer to the Argus Mr. Kerfoot says:

"We appreciate your paper very At the Public Library the follow- much; its coming actually seems to time friend. To show you that 1

October number of Harper's Mag- mean this enclosed find check for Major Thornton A. Mills, one of the principal lecturers of the Festival week, is of distinguished parentage. A son of the famous divine, Benjamin Fay Mills, he has inherited his father's remarkable platform ability and keen judgment of men and affairs. He has held important pastorates in the prominent churches of New York and the Middle West and was called to a prominent pulpit in Denver when Uncle Sam practically drafted his

