REAL SPEED KING IN"THE ROARING ROAD"
Popular Paramount Star Breaks
Automobile Records in His Latest Photoplay

In his new Paramount picture, "The Roaring Road," which will be shown at the Dreamland Theatre next Saturday, Wallace Reid blossoms out as a speed king. During the filming of the scenes, Mr. Reid himself drove his racing car, taking all kinds of chances and driving at incredible speed, to secure the last word in realism.

Most of the race scenes for the picture were filmed on the famous Santa Monica race course over which numerous road races have been contested by some of the world's most famous drivers.

There is one especially dangerous curve in this course, known as "death curve," and it is notorious for the number of accidents which have occurred there. In one scene of the picture Mr. Reid rounds this curve with perfect ease and accuracy of control, and at the same time, it is said, breaking the record for speed in rounding the curve which had been established and broken many times by various famous speed kings. Truly, this shows remarkable skill in the handling of a speeding automobile.

"LOVE IS LOVE"
IS COMING TO TOWN

William Fox is to present Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, the brilliant young comedy star, in "Love is Love" at the Dreamland Theatre next Tuesday. Advance reports of this photoplay indicate that it contains a love story that will picture on the screen with most telling effect when managed by these clever young artists, who have already been seen to such advantage in several fine and funny comedies. The part of Gerry Sands appears to be admirably suited to young Ray, and Miss Fair has already given evidence, in excellent emotion work, that she is equal to the part of Polly Ann Kerry. On the whole, "Love is Love" promises to be well worth seeing.

DOUG FAIRBANKS

If you were trying to get away from the sheriff, would you hide on the roof of the jail? That's what Douglas Fairbanks did in "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," and he got away with it—and with the most beautiful girl in Mexico in the bargain.

Life on Broadway was tiresome, so Teddy Drake became a wild Westerner—a real wild man in Old Mexico. What made him wild was the troubles he encountered when he tried to help other folks out of their troubles. Douglas Fairbanks does the helping hand stunt—and a lot of others, in "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo." You'd better see it. Sunday and Monday, Nov. 16 and 17.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEAHere's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or invention of disease.
