No Cure For The "Flu"

Altho this dreaded Disease ravaged the Country last year yet a cure has really not been found for it, and Medical Authorities say another Epidemic will occur.

We urge everybody, the minute you feel a cold coming on, have fever or chills, dull aches or constipation, to take a THORO, CLEANSING, PURIFYING LAXATIVE.

Bathe your feet in hot salt water, take a good big cup of HOLLISTER'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN TEA (warm), and go to bed for the night—chances are you will feel fine the next morning and it won't be so easy for the "Flu" or Grippe to get you.

Buy a package today, have it in the House and use it at the very first warning. Mothers should closely watch the children and treat them without delay.

MARY PICKFORD AS "JUDY" IN
"DADDY LONG LEGS" LEARNS
LESSON FROM CIDER JUG

One of the funniest of all the humorous things with which Mary Pickford's new and best feature, "Daddy Long Legs" which will be seen at the Dreamland, is loaded in a series of scenes in which Mary, as Judy Abbott, takes too much hard cider.

Prohibition Matron Spoils Jug.
The tyrannical head matron has won the battle, being a large woman able to dominate the cowering little waifs who are charges of the institution, and to punish Judy, and the little boy who aided her in encouraging the children to strike, the matron puts them out in the yard, with nothing to eat. A thief who has been stealing from a passing wagon throws over the fence a jug of hard cider, and some sandwiches.

Judy and the boy have been praying for food. They think this dropped from heaven, and proceed to eat and drink without inquiring into the nature of the donation. So it happens that in the most innocent way both children become "happy." Miss Pickford's portrayal of the surprised Judy, who punishes her enemies, gives jam to the children and defies the ogre of a matron is wonderfully done.

It is only one of the masterful "bits" she does in this picture which carries Judy, the orphan from her birth to her marriage to a rich man who sends her to college.

SHE KNEW HE WAS FALSE.

She knew that to him the marriage vow meant nothing. Yet she was his wife, bound to him by the law.

His, though her heart went out to another man who was good and brave and clean.

What did she do?
Hall Caine's sensational novel, "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," stirred two continents. Here is the story, translated to living film by Hugh Ford, one of the master directors of America, and played by a brilliant cast including Katherine MacDonald, Theodore Roberts, Milton Sills, Jack Holt and Fritz Brunette, at Dreamland Sunday and Monday, November 23 and 24.

"PROBATION WIFE."

In "The Probation Wife," Norma Talmadge's latest Select Picture, which can be seen Wednesday, Nov. 26, at Dreamland theatre, Norma Talmadge again demonstrates that remarkable versatility in her roles for which she is rapidly becoming distinguished.

At the opening of the picture we see her as an inmate of a notorious cafe. She is young, vibrating with life, and with an inner refinement which makes this life repulsive to her—and Norma Talmadge is the girl who can make you feel all these things.

The cafe is raided and Miss Talmadge, as Jo, is sent to the reformatory with the rest of the girls for three years. Here we have this talented Select star in another role.

She meets Harrison Wade and offers herself to him in return for whatever he deems fit to give her. He marries her and she becomes his probation wife. Here we have another Norma Talmadge. In the luxurious and refined home of Harrison Wade she develops into a different woman. Her acting is excellent. She is a vital living force upon the screen. Never has she done better work. Thomas Meighan, as her leading man, gives her splendid support.

"Don't Cheat Yourself"
says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobaccogoes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through.

Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.
