At The Movies

ELSIE FERGUSON'S
NEW PHOTOPLAY IS
"THE AVALANCHE"

Elsie Ferguson's new Artercraft picture is "The Avalanche," based upon the famous novel of Gertrude Atherton which was recently published and at a bound has won popular favor. The photoplay will be shown at the Dreamland theatre for one day only on Saturday, December 20.

The story is of absorbing interest and deals with the hereditary gambling taint in the blood of a young girl, Helene, herself the daughter and granddaughter of gamblers. In the story, Helene's mother is the daughter of a gambler living near Monte Carlo, and when he is killed in a quarrel, he leaves his daughter, Chichita, penniless.

There are numerous dramatic situations in the action and interest is not permitted to lag for an instant. The support is unusually effective, the cast being headed by Lumsden Hare who plays opposite the star. The cast includes Zeffie Tilbury, William Roselle, Fred Esmelton, Grace Field and Warner Hand.

In the grip of the law! But—was the law heartless, did it insist on its pound of flesh? See for yourself in "Blackie's Redemption," which will be shown at the Dreamland theatre with Bert Lytell as Blackie in the leading role.

HAYAKAWA PLAYS PART OF HOPELESS LOVER

"The Man Beneath," Sessue Hayakawa's latest Haworth production distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, is a drama which emphasizes in a powerful way the ban of blood which stands between the amalgamation of the eastern and western races.

Dr. Chindi Ashutor, a famous Hindu physician, falls in love with Kate Erskine, a Scotch girl. Although she really loves the Oriental, Kate realizes that marriage would make them both outcasts.

The final scene between the Hindu and the Scotch girl, in which the Oriental comprehends that his love is hopeless, shows Hayakawa in one of those quiet and tensely emotional scenes of which he is master.

The photography and settings are superb, while the story grips with its mystery and rapid sequence of action.

She could ride in Charlie's animated Jimricksha any old time—riding in the latest new-fangled twelve-cylinder speed devil however—

U-m! Well, the chance wasn't to be sneezed at, thought Wanda.

Still she loved Charlie and—well, what is a girl to do?

"Nother thing, Wanda didn't know what kind of an engine Charlie had buried in that old wreck he called "Greased Lightning."

The twelve-cylinder speed devil found out though. It's a corking fine rural romance. A pippin for thrills and fun. Try to come Friday.
