JUNTURA NEWS NOTES

Adeline Richey, who is attending Payette High School, came home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

A merry party, numbering 18 or 20, the guests of Miss Dorothy Colwell, gathered at the Townsite House on Thursday evening for a Thanksgiving frolic. The evening was spent at Progressive Five Hundred, music and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Friesz returned home last week. Mrs. Friesz has been visiting in Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John U. Hoffman. The many friends of Mr. Hoffman will be glad to know that his health is improving. For the sake of hastening his recovery, he, with his wife and daughter Mary, will spend the rest of the winter at San Diego, Cal.

Mrs. Bob Moffet came down from Drewsey Monday for medical attention.

Mr. James Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wharton left Tuesday to attend the Idaho-Oregon Honey Producers' meeting in Ontario.

Mrs. Frank Shumway, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Jones, returned to her home on Saturday.

"The Time of His Life," a farce, given by the home talent of Juntura, was greeted on Saturday night by a large and enthusiastic audience. The play was unusually well balanced and cleverly acted, and laughable from the first moment to the last. The cast is deserving of much praise for the finished manner in which it was presented and for the success of the undertaking. Following the play was a dance largely attended by Juntura people and visitors from the outside.

Mrs. A. M. Taylor, who has been living in Boise with her children since the beginning of the school year, returned last week to her home on the Agency ranch, near oBulah. Mrs. Taylor was accompanied from Boise by Mr. Taylor and the children.

Mrs. Geo. Hunter of Drewsey returned from outside points Saturday. Juntura residents are discussing ways and means in the fuel situation, as there is a shortage of coal here.

Happenings Around Our Town

Says Farmer Smith to Farmer Jones "my good and faithful pard,
I must hike away, this very day, to the B-P lumber yard.
My system fairly hankers, this season of the year,
For the ozone of the forests, it seems so very near.
Right at the B-P entrance, among the defferent woods,
The smell so sweet and hurin', they surely have the goods.
Those B-P men, they'r on the job, they meet you with a smile—
It's HOWDY BEN, It's HOWDY BILL, git off and rest awhile.
They mix their business so mighty well with jokin and-with josh,
That time, it flies like lightnin', it surely does, be gosh,
That when my jag is loaded and I'm drivin' on my way,
My very soul is singin': It's been a perfect day.

WE MAKE EM ALL HAPPY

BIG AUTO TRUCK NOW ON JOB DELIVERING TO NEARBY CITIES

With a big five ton truck the Davidson Grocery company is discounting the shortened train service to branch line towns. Ernest Gramse is the conductor, engineer, brakeman and crew of the freight service emanating from the local branch of the Davidson company and Dave Powers is sure of a way to get home when he gets stuck in the road. In spite of the snow the big truck has made its trips daily to/ale, Nyssa, Payette, Weiser, NewPlymouth and other adjacent business towns.

Mrs. John Rasmussen and children spent Saturday in Nampa, the guests of Mrs. Paul Cayou.
