MAURICE TOURNEUR'S PICTURE A TRIUMPH

Maurice Tourneur's latest Paramount-Artercraft production, "The White Heather," will score a triumph at the Dreamland theatre Sunday and Monday. The story is adapted from the famous Drury Lane melodrama of the same name. The background of this melodrama is divided between the Scotch highlands, the London financial district, the slums and the sea.

The narrative chiefly concerns the efforts of an unscrupulous nobleman to repudiate his marriage to a pretty commoner, the only record of the wedding being in the submerged wreck of a yacht.

STANLEY POPULAR PLAYER.

Picture lovers will remember a few years ago one of the most popular young men of the screen was Forrest Stanley. He deserted the cinema to return to the speaking stage. He comes back to the camera in support of Dorothy Dalton in "Other Men's Wives," which will be shown at Dreamland theatre for one day, commencing Friday. He plays the part of a young husband whose wife has fallen in love with another and who is made the object of the designing lovers.

STAR ON THE HONEYMOON.

Some months before coming to California to produce a screen version for Paramount of Clyde Fitch's celebrated comedy, "Girls," which will be shown at the Dreamland theatre Saturday, December 27, Marguerite Clark, dainty and popular screen star, was married to Lieutenant H. P. Williams. She was accompanied on her trip west by her husband. They were cordially received by the California officials of the company and took up their residence in a beautiful home prepared for them before their arrival. Taken all in all, the trip is a sort of honeymoon excursion for the happy couple.

DE LUXE ANNIE.

Norma Talmadge comes to the Dreamland theatre next Wednesday in the title role of "De Luxe Annie," her latest Select Picture, which is still registering a distinct success as a stage play in many of the largest cities. The picture was adapted for the screen by Paul West from the play by Edward Clark, and directed by Roland West. Surpassing even her supreme characterizations in "Ghosts of Yesterday" and "By Right of Purchase," this charming Select star has inspired her countless admirers to new enthusiasm with her portrayal of the heroine in "De Luxe Annie."

Julie Kendal, the loving wife of a devoted husband, is struck on the head and becomes an aphasia victim. While in this condition, she becomes the confederate of Jimmy Fitzpatrick in the operation of the de-luxe-book variation of the old badger game.

An operation restores her memory, and with it, the happy family life which had blessed the home of the Kendals before he catastrophe.

NEW CLAYTON PHOTOPLAY.

Appearing in a dual role of tremendous force, Ethel Clayton has achieved another triumph in her latest Paramount picture, "Vicky Van," which is the feature at the Dreamland theatre next Tuesday. The story is dramatic and exceptionally appealing. It was written by Carolyn Wells, a famous writer of detective fiction and adapted for the screen by Marion Fairfax. Emory Johnson plays opposite the star with signal success.
