RICH GIRL TURNS HOODLUM, THEN ROBBER, TO SAVE LOVER

But -ragedy Turns To Wealth of Humor With Mary Pickford as "The Hoodlum."

Demonstrating that poor people are more susceptible to the efforts of Dan Cupid than the wealthy, Mary Pickford, as Amy Burke in "The Hoodlum," which will be seen Jan. 8 and 9 at the Dreamland theatre, finds her husband in the tenements instead of the society circle on Riverside Drive where she had been living.

How Times Change!

In the tenements, garbed in the rather striking manner of the neighborhood girls, Amy finds that life with its fun, hardships, emotions and sentiment is far more developed among the poor than among her wealthy set.

"William Turner," Amy says to her tenement sweetheart, "three months ago I didn't love anyone but Cleopatra (referring to the cat), but now I love you. I guess it's because love comes easier to poor people. Maybe it's because love is the only luxury that God provides for people who don't know a finger bowl from a cuspidor."

At Dreamland, Thursday and Friday, January 8 and 9.

BRYANT WASHBURN IN "A VERY GOOD YOUNG MAN"

He was too good to be true. She couldn't believe that any young man could have habits so saintly. Result: she wouldn't take the bait.

So what do you think he did? Went right to work like a regular fellow to make the family reputation a fit subject for the laundry!

That's where the fun starts in "A Very Good Young Man." Miss this picture? Perish the thought! At Dreamland theatre, Tuesday, June 6.
