

SESSUE HAYAKAWA IN
"THE GRAY HORIZON"

He struggled to reach the heights, then he fell into the depths. Fame and fortune were within his grasp, but dishonor stalked out of the picture and snatched his family name. He killed the man who betrayed his secret, but the secret was his alone. Fate brought him face to face with his victim's wife. When he had exacted the blood payment, he paid the penalty. The story of an artist who sacrificed all for the honor of the woman he loved.

Seisue Hayakawa, master actor of the screen, in a drama of tremendous emotional appeal. Dreamland, Wednesday, January 28.

WHERE DOES HE GO FROM HERE?

On Douglas Fairbanks stay put? Sure—just like water stays on a ducks back! New York, then Mexico, then a European kingdom—that's the way he hops around the little old map in his new picture, "His Majesty, the American." It's a travogue a la Fairbanks—and some journey! Coming to Dreamland there soon.

A SOCIETY EXILE.

Life. Jealousy! The crack of a pistol—and the world had another "sensation." What though the "other woman" was all that a woman should be? Friends, home, honor fell away. Only love remained. Then in love's own way—but you'll have to see beautiful Elsie Ferguson in this great heart-warming picture before you can guess its power. Dreamland, Saturday, January 31.

TESTING FINDS THE GOOD COW

Average fat production by 3049 Oregon cows tested for November was 11.22 pounds—about double the average production of the Oregon cow for November. Yet the two best cows tested in association work produced 50 pounds each, reports E. L. Westover, Federal and O. A. C. field dairyman.

AGENTS STAND BY NEWSPAPERS

Support of the Oregon community newspapers was pledged by the county agricultural agent conference at the agricultural college January 9, in a resolution unanimously adopted. These resolutions took note of the news, print scarcity and other high cost of production factors. In view of the large part played by the local papers in promoting community programs built around farm bureau work, the county agents went on record for their support. Cooperation in obtaining desirable advertising was one of a half dozen means mentioned for putting the resolution into effect.

MOST ANCIENT FLIVVER,
HENRY'S 23RD CREATION,
RUNS LIKE A VETERAN

What is claimed as the most ancient Ford in captivity, furnishes some hilarious fun in "Better Times."

The "Lizzie" in question is a 1902 model, a side-winding bird that is said to hop higher and jump farther than any "cockroach" extant.

When Zasu Pitts, as "Nancy Scroggs," gets off the old boy, takes him out of the barn and starts for the station to meet the train, Old Doc Yak himself would feel envious. This flivver bears serial number 23 and it runs like the veteran it is.

There's no sense in being a grouch. Pessimism never got anybody anywhere except into a state of mental rot. Life isn't such a rotten game if you smile now and then, and it's a lot less rotten if you make other people smile.

"Better Times" isn't a preachment against pessimism nor a sermon on happiness, but it illustrates, in a clever and entertaining fashion, some very human truths.

You'll feel better after seeing "Better Times." Your food will digest with less opposition, and the birds will sing more sweetly. If you've got a friend with a grouch, bring him to see "Better Times." Dreamland, Friday, January 30.

WANTED TO BUY—One good work horse. Would consider team if a bargain. Thomas W. Clagett, Ontario. 212 8 1f

On the topmost peak of the great Himalayas, far above the timberline where age old glaciers daily mankind, stand three mysterious men. From their souls radiate mystery, black art and necromancy. The tarth dream reaches out to touch the stars and watch over the destinies of the earth.

"Thou shalt be the first to go," says one unto the other, for in thine eye is youth. Therefore we make thee a messenger of our will. Man, temptations will beset thee but know that the more thy feet shall bleed the whiter shall thy soul be."

And setting forth this weird and strange looking "yogi" launched his fateful will about a legion of souls. His God given crystal shows to Clara the life she is to pursue. Happiness, misery, tragedy, plaudits and hisses she sees in the mystic crystal. The heights of wealth, the depths of poverty, the envy of her peers, the hisses of her friends. All and more of tense and dynamic dramatic force is pictured midst lavish scenic surroundings by Clara Kimball Young in "Eyes of Youth."
