DELIGHTED!

Was the expression of our immortal Teddy—and the many patrons who have seen the "Colonial Minstrel Maids," who will appear at the Dreamland theatre this week. You will certainly be more than delighted with the pleasing stories, catchy music, beautiful girls, clever dancing, and the refined comedy of this well known attraction.

Not one dull moment throughout the evening is the record this remarkable company carries.

A dollar and a half show at popular prices.

If you must be a woman hater and a marriage slacker, you'd better make up your mind to be a hard-boiled egg as far as your sympathies are concerned, else Kid Cupid will snag you and put the Hymeneal shackles on you for life.

Young Van Courtradt tried to fly from matrimony, but he stopped to shed a tear over a escaped convict and exchanged clothes with the jailbird, and that's where his foot slipped. When the girl found him in her bed room she thought he was a convict. Forced into an engagement with a girl he had never seen before, compelled to masquerade in another man's name; almost arrested as a "stool-pigeon," Van finally found himself mixed up in a job of theirs during a raid by the police. But he fought his way out and rescued the girl and was cured of his fugitive ways.

The People Want It

So we will continue to serve our regular

Table d' Hote Sunday

Dinners

Last week we did not serve a Sunday dinner Table D' Hote, and we found that there was such a popular demand for it that we have decided that since Ontario wants this service,

The Blue Bird

will serve the popular need.

The hours are the same, 1 to 8, the service is our best, the dinner just as it would be at home. All the cooks are women cooks, trained in their homes to serve home-cooked meals. The result is what you would expect, good food well prepared, carefully served.
