JUNTURA NEWS NOTES

JUNTURA, Or., Feb. 25.—The third and last number of the Lyceum course will be given on Feb. 28th, by the Ward Waters Co. This program will be musical and dramatic and is said to be unusually interesting and original. It will be followed by a dance with music furnished by the Juntura Jazz Orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Tillotson passed thru town last week on their return to Beulah after several months' sojourn in California and Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed, who have had charge of Mr. Tillotson's business, came back to their home here on Thursday.

Will McDaren, who has been ill with flu in Burns, returned home last Wednesday.

R. J. Dodge of Ashland spent a few days here on business last week. Winnie Scott of Beulah and E. H. Lindsey of Juntura have become the owners of two new Ford touring cars that were brought to town last week. Jack Joyce was a passenger on Tuesday's train for outside points. Chas. Lutten, who spent the winter at Canyon, was in Juntura for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McRae and daughter, Miss Mary, were Juntura visitors last Wednesday.

Rex Arwine of Burns was a Juntura visitor last week, spending a number of days here.

Last Thursday Connie Moffet and family left for Emmett, Idaho, after spending most of the winter here. The Propst house, which they vacated, was taken by Roy Carry and family. William Sterling of the Wm. Hanley Co., stopped off for one day last Friday on his way home to Burns from Portland to look over the company interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Myers returned last Friday from Boise, passing thru town on the way to their ranch near Drewsey.

A. M. Taylor of the Agency ranch came in on Friday from a few days' visit in Harper.

Father Stack stopped over on Saturday on his way from Burns to Ontario to conduct Sunday services at St. Patrick's church here.

Miss Josephine Kauspusman spent a few days last week in Vale for dental treatment, leaving Stanley Asp in charge of the primary department of the school.

Martin Joyce returned on Friday from outside points.

Mrs. C. F. Kuehne and son, Mrs. Varner Hopkins and son, and Wm. McKennie left Monday for Vale and Ontario. Mrs. Kuehne is to file on a desert claim, and Mrs. Hopkins is appointed delegate to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Republican Central Committee.

David F. Graham went also as a delegate from this point.
