

FLO-FLO COMING TO WEISER
Massive, gorgeous, exquisite and pleasing, is what is claimed for John Cort's dainty musical comedy entitled "Flo-Flo," which will be the attraction at the Wheaton theatre, Weiser, Tuesday night, March 23.

The first act is set in the Bride Shop, a fashionable store for women in New York. The shapely models are paraded before the audience in the filmy lingerie that bewitch the men and delight the feminine heart. Then they are shown in the fashionable gowns and cloaks of present day styles—everyone of the presentations evoking the loudest applause. Of course, the masculine mind does not grasp these details with the rapturous interest displayed by the ladies, but there is plenty to make him stick to his seat out of fear he will miss something.

FORMER MANAGER BUYS ORCHARD AT JAMIESON

T. P. Dudley, who managed the properties of the Moline Farms company in the Willow River valley last summer, purchased from the company a twenty acre tract, of which seven acres are in fine pruned trees that have been bearing for some time.

Mr. Dudley returned to this section last week from Chicago, where he spent the winter and has started to get his ranch into condition for the coming year.
