BROGAN LINES UP ON FARM BUREAU PROGRAM

Willow River Valley Folks Hold Session at Which General Program Is Discussed—Committees Named and Luncheon Served.

At a well attended meeting in the new community hall at Brogan on Tuesday night, the people of Brogan decided to join in the Farm Bureau movement and form a local Bureau. This action was taken after the matter had been discussed in two former meetings and represents the deliberated opinion of the interested persons of the community.

A. A. Reed, who is a member of the county executive committee with horticulture as his line of work, was chairman and explained the purpose of the meeting. The County Club leader and County Agricultural agent were both present and were called upon to explain the purposes and workings of the Farm Bureau in their respective fields. Mrs. Thompson was asked to explain the educational purposes. Mr. Willis, Mr. Eaton and others spoke briefly on the benefits of the Farm Bureau for the adults and the children, after which the various projects were discussed and the program of the work adopted.

A motion then prevailed that the chair name a nominating committee to select committeemen to head each project chosen. S. Gittleman was chosen for Buying and Marketing; Mrs. A. A. Doubrava for Community Betterments; J. A. Coleman for Pest and Disease Control; A. A. Reed for Horticulture, and Mrs. W. B. Eaton for Club Work.

After the business meeting the chief feature of the evening came off. This was in the nature of a lunch of coffee and cake made and served by the Cooking Club Girls, which proved that the girls are becoming experts in this line.

NOTICE TO CHICKEN OWNERS.

You are hereby notified that it is contrary to the provisions of the city ordinances of the City of Ontario to permit chickens to run at large. No warning will be given to offenders of this ordinance other than this notice, and on complaints being filed with the City Recorder prosecutions will at once be started, according to law.

H. C. FARMER,
City Marshal.

Oregon Slope club boys will raise corn and sheep. The Hampshire is the breed chosen by the Farm Bureau for the club project, and purebred stock will be purchased for the boys soon.

Three boys in the Big Bend community will raise corn this year. These club members are Ira Brumbaugh, Wesley Roberts and Wilbur Roberts.

Club work will be organized soon at Ontario, Brogan and Bonita.
