The old DeLaval has paid for itself many times in the last seventeen years, and the new machine skims cleaner and quicker.

Conditions have changed greatly during the last few years. Butter fat and other dairy products bring twice as much as they did five years ago; while the DeLaval has only advanced 50 per cent, due in part to improvements, and increased capacity, so that the actual advance on DeLaval is slight compared with other commodities.

have for many years spent less money per student per year in training Oregon boys and girls than is spent at any other state institution. The present cost at the State University is $205 a year; at the College, it is $150. But even before the war, when money would buy twice as much as it buys now, the average cost at all other state institutions was $325 a year. In addition

Their Building Investment is also very low

At the State University it is at present $222 per student; at the College, $200. But in state institutions elsewhere, statistics show the average to be $605. These are convincing proofs of economical administration, but the three institutions can no longer give satisfactory training to the vast number of Oregon boys and girls (5400 in fulltime courses alone), unless they receive more support. On May 21 the Higher Educational relief measure will appear on the ballot. You are urged to preserve the quality of higher education by voting for it.
