NAIL IN WALK CAUSES INJURY
FOR MRS. H. C. BOYER

One day last week Mrs. H. C. Boyer had the misfortune to step on a spike in the walk at the Boyer home. It penetrated her right foot so far that the point pressed the skin on the upper side. Fortunately the spike was not rusted and first aid resulted in prevention of an infection. Aside from the pain and inconvenience of limping she has recovered from the effect of her experience.

Forcing Down the Price

Men's Young Men's and Boy's Wear

Throughout the Country the Break Has Begun

And despite the fact that Mills and Manufacturers are striving, battling and threatening to keep on raising, nevertheless many retailers who come in daily contact with the consuming public are ignoring the future---are cutting away all profits and ignoring costs---and if necessary to bring about more reasonable conditions will willingly take their lesson.
