BOISE SUNDAY SCHOOL VISITS FRUITLAND

Members of Fellowship Class Call on Former Pastor and are Entertained Royally—Strawberries Piece de Resistance of Spread

Sunday will be long remembered by the friends of the Fruitland M. E. Church because they entertained in a royal manner nearly seventy of the members and friends of the Sunday School of the First Methodist Church of Boise, about thirty-five of them being members of the Fellowship Class. This class had with them about fifteen of the men's Chorus. Their instructor, Mrs. Rankin, throughout the day rendered most appropriate and beautiful music that was an inspiration to the Fruitland people who heard them. The Boise friends fully enjoyed the day. In the morning at the usual church service the following addresses were given on the subjects assigned, each being given ten minutes: Mr. Packenborn, Thrall Kill, Mr. D. L. Young, Mr. Bruce, Mr. Roan.

At one o'clock, the close of the morning service, a most elaborate luncheon of chicken sandwiches, baked beans, salad, pickles, coffee, cake, strawberries and pie were served in cafeteria style from the Church bungalow, adjoining. After the luncheon Rev. Ewing, District Superintendent, spoke to the audience out-of-doors on the bungalow porch and a number of selections by the Fellowship chorus and solos by Mrs. Rankin and Mr. Whitaker were enjoyed. Dr. Vandusen, pastor of our church was overjoyed to have so many as seventy come from Boise sixty miles by auto to attend our church services and give to us an inspiration of love and good fellowship.
