

AMERICAN PATRIOTS' PRAYER.

Parent of all, omnipotent
In heav'n and earth below,
Thro' all creation's bounds unspent,
Whose streams of goodness flow,
Teach me to know from whence I rose,
And unto what designed;
No private aims let me propose,
Since link'd with human kind,
But chief to hear my country's voice,
May all my thoughts incline,
The reason's law, 'tis virtue's choice,
'Tis nature's call and thine.
Me from fair freedom's sacred cause
Let nothing e'er divide;
Grandeur, nor gold, nor vain applause,
Nor friendship false misguide.
Let me not faction's partial hate
Pursue to this land's woe;
Nor grasp the thunder of the state
To wound a private foe.
If, for the right, to wish the wrong
My country shall combine,
Single to serve th' erroneous throng,
Spite of themselves, be mine.

NATION HOLDS DAY SACRED

Rightly or Wrongly, the Fourth of July is Enshrined in the Hearts of Americans.

The discovery of a long-lost letter from Thomas McKean, one of the signers of the American Declaration of Independence, to Cesar Augustus Rodney, nephew of Cesar Rodney, another signer of that document, reveals information that the Declaration was not actually signed on the 4th of July. "Now that I am on the subject," wrote Mr. McKean, in August, 1813, replying to a question by Mr. Rodney, "I will tell you some truth, not generally known. In the printed Journal of congress for 1776, volume 2, it would appear that the Declaration of Independence was signed on the 4th of July by the members, whose names are there inserted; but the fact is not so, for no person signed it on that day nor for many days after. . . . on the 4th of July, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was ordered to be engrossed, on parchment & then to be signed." Mr. McKean adds that after the 4th he was away from Philadelphia for some months assisting General Washington in completing a "camp of ten thousand men," and that he then returned to congress and added his own signature. It is all very interesting, but of course it will not make any difference to the Fourth.

"There's Good Reason for Joy" says the Good Judge

In the Real Tobacco Chew. You get satisfaction. A little of this class of tobacco lasts so much longer than the old kind. And you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—so it costs you less. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles
RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco
W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco

Spending a Dollar

To make money the business man spends money, and even borrows money. The farmer is a business man. He too must spend and borrow in order to earn. And right here especially is where our bank comes in, with

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

This bank cares for your savings, loans and investments. This national farm weekly cares not only for the growing of crops and livestock, but also the buying and selling end of the farmer's business.

In its pages, Maine potato growers learn from Wisconsin potato growers; Texas and Indiana cattle men exchange pointers; and so on, each section helping another solve its most important problems. We are bankers, and where we can't help you in farm management we know who can.

We firmly believe that by spending a dollar for a year's subscription to THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN you may save a hundred or two in your business during the coming year—to deposit in our bank. Ask us to enter your subscription. We'll start it promptly and change your account with the price.

That office boy was a good picker.

IT WAS my busy day.
AND I told the boy.
I COULD not see.
ANY VISITORS.
AND HE popped back.
AND SAID there was.
A GENTLEMAN outside.
WHO WISHED to see me.
AND I said "No."
BUT I guess the boy.
IS LIKE my wife.
AND DOESN'T know.
WHO'S BOSS.
FOR BACK he comes.
AND SAYS the man.
WANTS JUST a word.
AND I told the boy.
I COULD tell the man.
JUST WHERE to go.

JUST three words.
BUT THE boy came back.
AND SAID the man.
COULD SPOT me one.
HIS BUSINESS needed.
JUST TWO words.
AND I'M a sport.
AND CURIOUS too.
SO IN he came.
AND HANDED me.
SOME CIGARETTES to try.
AND SAID "They Satisfy."
AND I will state.
HE SAID something.

"THEY satisfy"—that says it. Never were finer tobaccos used in any cigarette and never were tobaccos more carefully and skillfully blended. Chesterfields give you all that any cigarette could give, plus a certain "satisfy" quality that is exclusively theirs. The blend can't be copied.
