

FRUITLAND BENCH NEWS

Kinsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kinsey, of Fruitland, to Miss Lillian Wardell, of Boise. They will make their home in Boise.

L. H. Rich, Frank Rich, A. H. Ramey and Anson Davis, left by auto Monday morning for Payette Lakes where they have employment on the dam.

A large number of the Fruitland people who were in Ontario Saturday night were forced to drive down Dead Ox Flat to the Payette Bridge across the Snake River at the Payette cemetery in order to reach their homes at Fruitland because of the partial burning of the Ontario bridge over the Snake.

One of the most admired cars in the Fourth of July parade at Ontario was that of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stetler of Fruitland. The car captured third prize. It was trimmed in Baby Breath and pretty flowers interspersed thereabouts and really was quite effective. The car was washed and taken to be washed at eight and from nine to the time of arriving at Ontario at ten for the parade was taken up in the trimming which goes to show what one can do in a very short time and upon short notice.

The C. E. held a very pleasant and important meeting Monday evening at the P. A. Creger home where games and a cafeteria lunch were enjoyed. Soon a meeting will be held for the young people of the Society who joined during the contest to instruct them in Endeavor work.

State Conference of Brethren Church
The Idaho Conference of the Church of the Brethren held here July is considered by all the most successful conference that body has ever held since its organization in 1911. Delegations were present from all churches in the state excepting one. A large number attended the sessions from the churches not distant from Fruitland.

Dean John P. Dickey, of LaVerne College, California, addressed the Conference at the opening meeting in a powerful sermon on "The Church" and spoke again at the closing session Thursday evening.

M. R. Zigler, Home Secretary of the General Mission Board, Elgin, Illinois, presented the "Challenge of Needs for Missionary Effort in America."

Rev. Calla Farhney, of Twin Falls, was elected Moderator of the Conference, Fred Flora, of Moscow, Reading Clerk, and C. H. Shamberger, of Fruitland, Writing Clerk. A new office was created by combining those of District Sunday School Secretary and State Evangelist. Rev. J. E. Steinhour, of Murtaugh, will fill this position the coming year.

Rev. J. H. Graybill, of Nampa, will represent the state at the 1921 General Conference which meets in Henshey, Pennsylvania, in June.

David Betts of near Nampa was delegated to represent the Sunday schools at the World's Sunday School Convention in Tokyo, Japan in October.

A committee was provided which will have general supervision of the several inspirational conferences of the meeting each year.

One of the most interesting discussions of any was the one in connection with the change from the free to the salaried ministry. The Idaho churches are rapidly adopting the supported pastor at the present time.

The music furnished by the young people of Fruitland was highly appreciated and all delegates enjoyed the splendid hospitality of the local churches.

2 DAYS ONLY, Sunday and Monday, July 18 and 19th.

The name applied to the instrument of supreme musical quality for nearly 300 years.

It is fitting that the most exquisite and eloquent musical instrument of all time called a Cremona.

The Cremona phonograph adds to the luster of that great name and every kind of musical instrument the produced places a new jewel in the crown which graces the heads of

If you want the best don't buy a phonograph until you hear the Cremona. It plays all records—better. It is an old music idea applied in a new way. The music producing parts follow the same principle and are built of the same spruce wood that made the Cremona violins famous.

Cremonas can be secured in ten beautiful styles from $20.00 to $300.00 on easy terms.
