HER GREATEST THRILL

"Speaking of Thrills," said Mary Pickford, who will be seen at the Majestic Theatre soon in the exhilarated comedy drama, "Suds," her recent United Artists Corporation production. "I thought I had the thrill of my life when I took my first aeroplane flight—but that was in comparison to the ride I had while filming 'Suds.'"

"I was supposed to drop into a basket of clothes and go shooting down the laundry chute, dragging the proprietress of the laundry down with me. I sat down with a lot of force, Madame's foot caught in the rope and away we went. The over-ambitious property man had made the chute unnecessarily slippery, and the Madame weights a little under two hundred. Between the slippery chute and Madame's great weight I went down that chute at about two miles a minute and when I landed on the counter at the other side of chute led, I was absolutely breathless and felt even worse than when I came out of a nose dive in a plane. When you see the picture watch for the incident and you will realize I'm not exaggerating the truth."

THE DEVIL'S PASS KEY

Yvonne Bagrange, wife of an aspiring author, finds herself deeply indebted to Madame Malot, a scheming modiste, whom she owes fifty thousand francs. At the proper time, Madame Malot springs her trap and tells the girl of a young American, Hugh Randolph, who will pay her debts. Desperate, the girl goes to the man. Randolph, realizing the girl is innocent and unsophisticated, kindly refuses her the money, telling her that he has exhausted his income. He advises her to tell her husband of her debts, at the same time informing her to call upon him if Madame Malot gets nasty. Enraged, the modiste allies herself with Hugh's former mistress, seeking to discredit him and at the same time implicating the girl. The schemers are foiled, however, and the modiste is forced to receipt Yvonne's bills.

How Bagrange achieves success as a play-wright by presenting the trials of his wife on the stage, and how, upon learning her part, he seeks a divorce, but is reconciled upon learning the true fact from Randolph, presents a sequence of events in a manner only characteristic of Von Stroheim. Again he shows his mastery at handling delicate situations, his master hand being evident thru-out the drama. Majestic, Sunday & Monday, August 8th and 9th.

OWEN MOORE IS THE TOWN ROUNDER IN NEW COMEDY

"Piccadilly Jim" with Owen Moore which comes to the Majestic Theatre, Thursday, August 12 is a sparkling comedy—a picturization of Pelham Grenville Wodehouse's story which, in its original form, appeared serially in "The Saturday Evening Post," and won nationwide popularity.

As a photoplay the satire is said to be even funnier than when it was splitting the sides of several million readers a week. Owen Moore lends to the title role a remarkable sense of comedy values which serves to draw from each scene every single bit of humor that the author wrote into it, and sometimes just a wee bit more.

The star's portrayal of the light-hearted, care-free, irresponsible youngster who rolls into trouble and rolls out again is one of the finest bits of acting that the screen has ever known.

Zona Keefe plays opposite Mr. Moore and her work is remarkable. It is by just such sterling work as this that she won the honor that is to be hers in 1920, when she is to be starred in a series of Selznick Pictures. The rest of the cast is proportionately adequate, the artistic interiors and beautiful exteriors, charm the eye and the direction leaves nothing to be desired.

"THE WILDERNESS TRAIL"

The Dreamland Theatre will show for the first time one of the finest and most exciting photoplays seen here in years. This is the William Fox production, "The Wilderness Trail" with the daring, dashing Tom Mix as star. The story tells of a struggle between love and duty, with a background of wonderful snow photography in the Canadian far north among the Hudson Bay Trappers.

Tom Mix performs feats that seem impossible to the average person. As the story unfolds he gets into extraordinary complications, but in his whirlwind fashion comes through gloriously—until one wants to go back and see it all over again. Dreamland, Saturday, August 7.

"UNEASY FEET" A REAL FEAT

If you would have one good laugh, and a long one—since you literally won't stop from one end of the comedy to the other—by all means don't miss witnessing "UNEASY FEET," to be shown at the Dreamland, Thurs. August 5.

The whole story is told merely through showing the characters' feet—not one subtitle is shown. There is a flirtation, a courtship, a wedding and a screamingly funny finish. The picture will be shown at the Dreamland Theatre Thursday, August 5.

"MARY'S ANKLE"

Out of luck and out of dough. Young Doc Hampton faked a wife; Rich old uncle wasn't slow; Wished to see her in the life.

Mary's ankle was the clew. Sprained outside the Doctor's room; Mending it healed troubles too; Honeymoon soon chased the gloom.

Doug MacLean and Doris May Make the chuckles pile up high In this jolly photoplay.

"Mary's Ankle"—come see why.

"MARY'S ANKLE" COMING

He was a prominent young doctor, but he lacked patients and his closest chums refused to accept his pills, even when they were offered for nothing. Then fate threw a rich uncle and a pretty girl with a sprained ankle across his path, and things began to hum. That's the situation in "Mary's Ankle," the latest Thomas H. Ince picture starring Douglas MacLean and Doris May and coming to the Dreamland Theatre Friday, August 6.

GISH COMEDY COMING

Can you imagine peppy Dorothy Gish suppressed for life in a sleepy Southern town that closes up shop every evening at nine o'clock? In "Mary Ellen Comes to Town," which will be shown at the Dreamland on Sunday and Monday, August 8th and 9th, the vivacious comedienne starts out as chauffeur at the local soda fountain and plays checkers with the "hicks" who congregate there. But, of course, that's too slow for Dorothy, and when a pretty actress lady gets stalled near town in the one single train that runs daily, Dorothy gets the inspiration to go to New York and make a hit in dramatics. She doesn't score the expected sensation, but she does encounter some exciting adventures and wins herself a rich husband, who by the way is a native of the drowsy town from which she herself springs.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Vic Maruden who has operated his machine shop on First street and Idaho avenue for so many years has moved. He is now located in the shop formerly used as a second hand store on the corner of First street and 2nd avenue S. W. He moved this week.

Mrs. Sarah Crane and daughter, Miss Lola Steen of Caldwell are visiting at the R. C. Towns homes.

Miss Lois Neace came down from Boise Saturday to spend the week end visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Neace.

Mrs. Jennie Mason, who has been visiting in Ontario with her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Cox, for some time, left Monday for her home at Grenville, Iowa, accompanied by Miss Dolly Rollins, and Clementine and Margaret Cox, who will visit there for the next two months.

WHEAT DROPS TO NEAR $2 MARK

Chicago.—For the first time in more than two years, wheat futures on the Chicago board of trade were near the $2 mark Saturday.

A drop of 19 cents in December wheat brought the total drop for the week to 45 cents and put the price at $2.15. March wheat followed December closely, the final bid being $2.13.

The drop in wheat was the feature of the week on the board of trade, but there was little sensational in its accomplishment. There was simply no buyers, and sellers daily lowered the figure at which they would part from their holding.

Corn and oats dropped in sympathy with wheat, but to a lesser extent. For the week the losses in corn were: July, 20 cents; September, 17 cents; December, 17 cents. July oats dropped 9 1/2 cents; September and December 7 cents each.

CHIMPANZEES IN PICTURES AT DREAMLAND THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, August 8 and 9 the Dreamland will offer its patrons something entirely different in comedies. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin, two trained chimpanzees will take the lead in a two reel comedy entitled "Monkey Stuff." These comedies are a riot of fun from beginning to end and are entirely different from anything ever shown in Ontario in the past.

CURBS AND PARKINGS PROPOSED FOR CITY

was read and passed.

The members of the Council told the city marshals that they desired a real effort to stop speeding on the pavements, a custom that has grown popular of late, and were informed that the request would be complied with.

The Council also ordered that the numbers of trains running thru the city at excessive speed be taken and also those guilty of excessive whistling be listed and a complaint filed with the Public Utilities commission for action. Marshal H. C. Farmer and Night Marshal J. H. Gordon both cited numerous instances of trains running thru the city at excessive speeds. They requested an ordinance defining the speed of trains upon which the arrest of trainmen and engineers could be secured. It was determined to put the matter up to the Utilities commission for action, and if that did not get the desired compliance with reasonable regulations to pass an ordinance later.

This matter has been before the Council before and requests made by the Mayor and Council have been filed with the railroad officials. These have resulted in observance of a season for a short time and then apparently forgotten.

Articles Delivered On Hand
A request was received from a committee representing the Ontario band for assistance in maintaining a municipal organization. The committee asked that an appropriation of $100 per month be made for which the band would play free at a stipulated number of programs.

City Attorney Gallagher was requested to furnish an opinion as to the legality of such an action, he declared that under the provision of advertising such an appropriation might be made, but asked from whence the funds could be derived since no provision was made for this budget.

Several members of the council and the Mayor expressed themselves in favor of providing for the band but decided to wait until the next meeting for a further opinion from the City Attorney before taking action.

Dr. E. S. Fortner requested the Council to pass a resolution requesting the State Highway Commission to designate the river route into the city as the location of the Old Oregon Trail, and the Council improve the street leading to this entrance to the city. He explained that two routes were available and that the river route would bring the traffic nearer to the heart of the city, as well as making possible a more scenic route.

club's good roads committee, explained the proposition as put forward by Division Engineer Baldoek and declared that since the committee was divided on the matter it was up to the Council to determine, if it so desired, whether or not it desired to make the request. He explained that T. W. Claggett of the committee preferred the entrance west of the Fair ground while the other members of the committee had gone no further with the matter. The council unanimously passed the motion to have the resolution prepared.
