"The Cyclone"

A Tale of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police

Clad only in youthful innocence, a whisp of tropical grasses, leaf of the fig and beads of adornment—
Flashing flesh, shining eyes, flying feet, flaunting the youths who would win her, worshipping her devil-devil God with sinuous dances apart from the eyes of men—

This is Mary, "White Almond Flower"
"The Idol Dancer"

Sprite of the sands, plaything of the waves, coveted and fought for by the renegades of the exotic South Sea Isles.
Heroine of the strangest tale of love and adventure—a tale of strange lands and rebellious men, a tale of heart throbs, of fighting, but without, a tale of redemption and beauty most thrilling—

MISS BARRISCALE IN WATER STUNTS

In "The Woman Michael Married," her latest production for Robertson-Cole, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, lovely Bessie Barriscale sustains her reputation as one of the most versatile actresses of the screen.

In her brilliant career Miss Barriscale has created many diversified characterizations, from the blase society woman to the "slavey" among crooks, but this is the first time she has been called upon to do the Annette Kellerman stunt.

As Mira Sackey, the blonde star is seen as a professional swimmer who possesses, in addition to her "shape" and aquatic talents, a remarkably beautiful voice and an ambition to cultivate it and become a great singer. Saving the life of a child, the protegee of the scion of a wealthy family, she is offered a big money reward by the society man. Instead she demands as a reward that he marry her, thus serving the double purpose of giving her a name and providing money for her vocal training.

The subsequent denouement furnishes a delightful drama in which Miss Barriscale is shown in some stunning gowns.

The production is a screen dramatization of the story by DuVernet Rabell, which appeared in the December, 1918, number of Annie's Magazine. The locale affords many opportunities for lavish and colorful backgrounds, one of the striking and realistic scenes being a swimming-pool where a fashionable dinner party is in progress, the guests being clothed—or rather unclothed—in the bathing-suits. Majestic, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 18 and 19.

JOINT SESSION TO BE HELD

Washington, Idaho and Oregon Commission to Sit Together.

Olympia, Wash.—As the state's questions involving allowance of increased freight and passenger rates on local traffic as fixed by the interstate commerce commission for interstate traffic are common to the northwest, the public service commissions of Oregon and Idaho will sit with the Washington commission on Tuesday, August 17, in a hearing beginning at 10 A. M. in the senate chamber here. The common problem before the commissions of the three northwest states will be to harmonize local increases asked with the required increase necessary to guarantee a return of 5 1/2 per cent consistent with the recent interstate commerce commission ruling.

Northwest Crisis for Cars.

Washington.—Agricultural interests in the northwest face bankruptcy because of the present car shortage, the interstate commerce commission was told by railroad commissioners and shippers from Montana, Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota. The commission was asked to issue orders guaranteeing the car supply for the movement of the grain crops.
