

ONTARIO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

OPEN SEPTEMBER 6th, 1920

High School

The Ontario High School will be better prepared to train and educate the young people of this community during the coming year than ever before. All former High School Students and all eighth grade graduates will be especially interested in the following information:

1. An unusually strong faculty, eleven in number, has been selected for the coming year.
2. Forty-six different classes meeting every day offer a great variety of studies.
3. Special school activities open to our students, in addition to the regular class work are; military training for all boys, gymnasium training for all girls, High school band, glee clubs, orchestra, football basket ball and track teams, a reorganized commercial department offering typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping, commercial geography, commercial law, spelling and penmanship; a teacher training course leading to a certificate, manual training for boys, cooking and sewing for girls, free physical examinations for all students.
4. The high school building has been completely overhauled and repaired. New floors, new seats, and newly kalsomined walls add much to the general appearance.

Grade Schools

The corps of teachers for the grade schools has been selected from trained and experienced applicants from all over the west. The Board of Education has increased salaries liberally in order to get the best teachers possible for the Ontario Schools.

The four upper grades at the West Side School have been reorganized on the departmental plan, Mr. Senseman, the principal will teach all the Arithmetic, Mrs. Deal the language and grammar, Miss Platt the Geography, Mr. Roberts the History, Civics and Physiology, and Mrs. Roberts the Reading in all these grades.

Both grade school buildings have been remodeled and painted on the interior. Three fire escapes have been installed in the West Side School and the main stair way has been made three feet wider.

The entire second floor of the East Side school is being completed and finished up.

Both High School and grade school students should begin making plans now to be on hand the first day of the school year.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

In order that time may be had to advise and help each individual student in choosing a course of study, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 2nd and 3rd have been set aside for this purpose. All high school students will come to the building to enroll and classify according to the following schedule:

Seniors, fourth year students, Thursday 9 to 12 a. m. Juniors, third year students, Thursday 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. Sophomores, second year students, Friday 9 to 12 a. m. Freshmen, first year students, Friday 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. Students need not be present except at the time mentioned.

All Freshmen, or first year students, will be required to study English and Algebra. They must select two other studies from the following: Ancient History, Latin, General Science, Manual Training or Sewing.

For Further Particulars Call or Write J. M. McDONALD, Supt., Ontario, Oregon.

MIX GIVES DISPLAY OF MARKSMANSHIP

Tom Mix, the famous William Fox cowboy star who comes to the Dreamland Theatre on Tues., Aug. 24 in his most thrilling photoplay, "The Daredevil," shows some of his greatest marksmanship in this picture. He shoots a strap off a pair of "chaps" worn by a cowboy, and in another scene shoots a whiskey glass out of a bandit's hand. The climax of his skill is reached when he shoots out the lights of six candles that are burning on a ledge. Tom Mix is known as the gunman who never misses and his cowboys have such confidence in him that they say they would even allow him to shoot the hairs off their eyebrows.

At The Movies

"SEALED HEARTS"

"Sealed Hearts" the Second Selznick Picture in which Eugene O'Brien is starring, will open at the Majestic Theatre, Thursday, Aug. 26 for 2 days. Of noteworthy interest in this production is the brilliancy of the cast which supports this popular star, it being heard by Robert Edson on the one side and on the feminine side by Lucile Lee Stewart. Miss Stewart, it will be remembered, played a prominent role in "The Perfect Lover," which recently showed here.

Since Mr. Edson achieved his phenomenal success on the stage as the star in "Strongheart," his name has been one to conjure with in matters dramatic. His long and varied stage career includes an interesting and preponderantly successful series of "legitimate" productions, recently culminating in "The Good Bad Woman" and these successes have raised him to one of the highest echelons in the theatrical Hall of Fame.

In all of his stage ventures, Robert Edson has been starred, just as he has been starred heretofore in practically all his screen plays and his presence at the head of Eugene O'Brien's support in "Sealed Hearts" is, therefore, indicative of the high plane on which this photoplay has been produced.

SOMETHING ABOUT

"SHORE ACRES"

"Shore Acres" is a story of plain New England folk on the rocky coast of Maine. Martin Berry, a stern old lighthouse keeper, forbids his spirited daughter Helen to speak to the man she loves. It is Martin's fondest hope that Helen will marry Josiah Blake, the village banker. Helen refuses to obey her father, and elopes with her sweetheart on the "Liddy Ann," a vessel bound down the coast. Her father learns of her departure and, insane with rage, he prevents his brother, Nathan, from lighting the beacon that will guide the vessel safely out through the rocks of the harbor. Desperately the two men battle together in the lighthouse—one to save the vessel, the other to destroy her. A sou'easter is raging, and during their struggle the "Liddy Ann" goes on the rocks, and the passengers are left to the mercy of the storm. The scene fairly makes the nerves tingle with excitement. What befalls thereafter is thrillingly unfolded in this picturization of the greatest American play of the century. "Shore Acres" is a big human drama of thrills and heart throbs, replete with delicious humor and tender pathos. Dreamland, August 25-26.

KHAKI SCREEN COMEDY

How many ex-doughboys while they were in the early training camp stage found themselves mixed up in a screamingly funny entanglement and made the remark, "Gee, they ought to put this in the movies." Well, Mary Roberts Rinehart wrote a story for a popular magazine called "Twenty-three and a half Hours' Leave" about a happy-go-lucky cavalry sergeant who made a bet that he would eat breakfast with his colonel—and did it. A million or so readers laughed at the story and now the veteran producer, Thomas H. Ince, has made a motion picture out of it for his latest pair of stars, Doris May and Douglas McLean. The film is booked to be shown at the Dreamland Theatre Sunday, Aug. 22. It tells how Sergeant Bill Gray made the wager and not only broke muffs with the C. O. but also won the Colonel's daughter's heart. Which was the greater achievement it will take the picture to show.

"EXCUSE MY DUST"

If you can feel:—The dare of the open road to the straining motor-devil under your hood—The tug of a little lad, your son,—ill, and his mother's call, "Hurry!"—The sting of "Coward," flung by a foe—The wild, fierce joy of the race, mile on mile, through the night, while Death reaches a hundred hands from the dark—The horror of trickery, wreck, and the thrill of good hard fists on the face of a cad—If you can join the yelling crowds when a record's smashed—See Wallace Reid in "Excuse My Dust." Saturday, August 21 at the Dreamland.
